"Autumn" by Albert Laughton

The crisp air of Fall marks the opening act of our School Year. When most of Nature's beautiful scene begins to die, our scene, the City of Byrd, is just beginning to come alive with its cast, the citizens of Byrd. Our Seniors will be first on our marquee because they will be the leaders of this year. As the curtain of our play goes up and the first act entitled FALL opens, we see part of our cast playing football, while some are busy marching in the Pep Squad, and still others are playing their musical instruments or singing in the choir.

FALL

FALL FUN

It's all a part of high school life; the mystery that fills the mind of every student: "What lies ahead?" For some it means the first year of this new life as seen through wide eyes of amazement and puzzlement. For others it is the last year they will walk through the familiar halls of our city.

As the first day of school begins, we see quite a crowd of students gathered around the front entrance of our city.

As proof of the interest in the organization of clubs at Byrd, we see the members of the Gayaree History Club paying their membership dues.

The exuberant expressions which appear on the faces of Mary Murphree, Barbara Ferguson, Margaret Rosbottom, Jackie Reed, and Jean Cummings en route to a football game, show the ever present school spirit.

This year, a little different from the last and never to be duplicated, opens with the old spirit which is to live and grow during the next nine months. The enthusiasm, ambition, and sincerity of the citizens of our great city keep the spirit from dying. The time and hours of work spent by each, no matter how small, shapes the heart of Byrd.

A task performed before every in-town game is the decorating of the football goal posts by the cheerleaders and other students. Much outside time is spent in the wrapping of these posts. Shown here are Pam Plumley, Hoyt Bain, Jimmy Hartwell, and Johnny Killgore busily engaged in their task.

Red Cross members Helen Lefkowitz and Mary Nell Yauger make corrections in the names of Jim Myers and Tom Parker. This is only a small part of the work put in each year by the Red Cross in publishing the "Byrd High Telephone Book," better known as the Student Directory.

The Lost and Found, a very familiar place in our school, is visited by many students each day. Annette Nail and Patricia O'Neil are shown assisting Glenn Strickland, Bruce Wiener, and Jimmy Payne in locating their lost articles.

On the night of October 18, we see the members of the Homecoming Court watching the game which is played in their honor.

With the beginning of the big year, many hours are spent organizing the various activities . . . Le Cercle Francais, Red Cross, Gayaree History Club, along with many others. Classes become almost drudgery, until the weekend at last arrives, bringing with it the excitement of a football game, the carefree atmosphere of a post game dance, or some other enjoyable activity.

Having had their Gusher pictures taken, the Pep Squad members sign their names on the identification sheets.

Under the command of Major Jimmy Pate and Sponsor Major Diane Griffin, the Patton Platoon spends many long hours practicing for their performances. Here we see them executing one of their precision drills.

With Charles Peatross carrying, the Byrd High Yellow Jackets gain against the Fair Park Indians, our cross-town rival, in the annual Thanksgiving Day game.

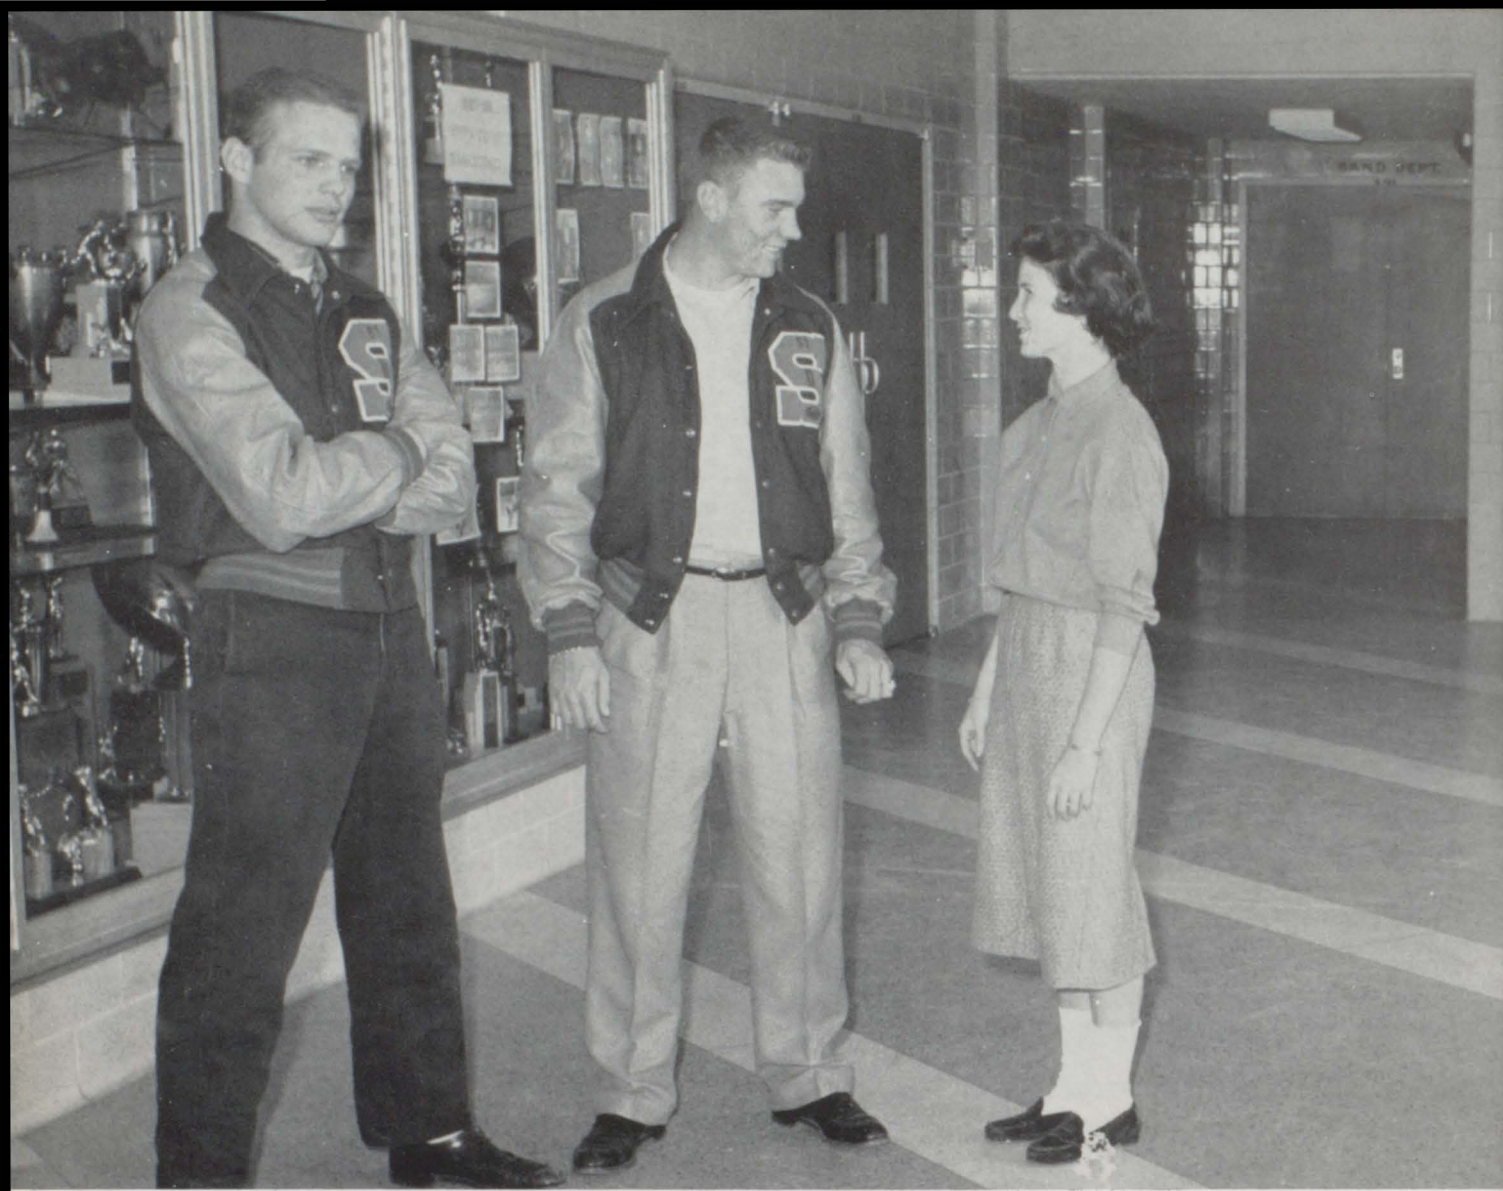

Then, from out of nowhere, Homecoming makes its entrance and marks a memory for all. Our experiences have hardly become memories when the big day arrives . . . Thanksgiving. Although we came face to face with defeat, the big team was supported with the same school spirit that is present at all times. As the last leaf of Autumn falls, the fall season gives way to the whirl of winter.

At the second annual Peep Show Wayne Hidalgo and Murray Johnston model the latest fall fashions for the coming school year.

Adelaide McClanahan and Jackie Rosett are busily serving the teachers at the Louisiana State Teachers' Convention which was held here this year. The Student Council Snack Bar helped Byrd be a better hostess to the teachers attending the convention.

S P O R T S

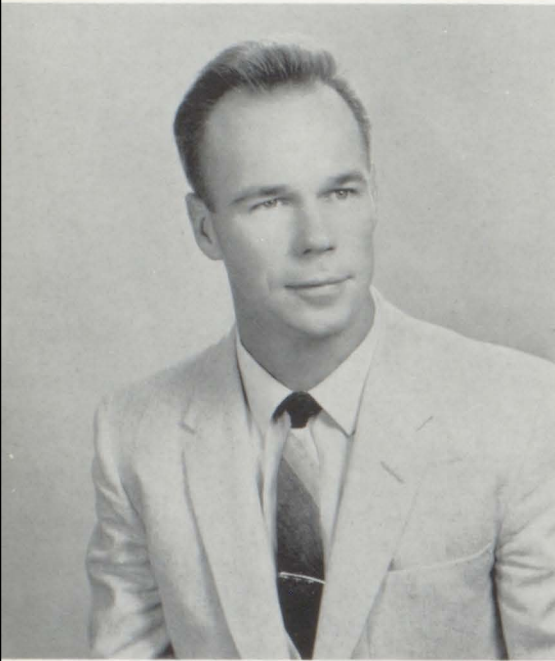

In the fall of the year:

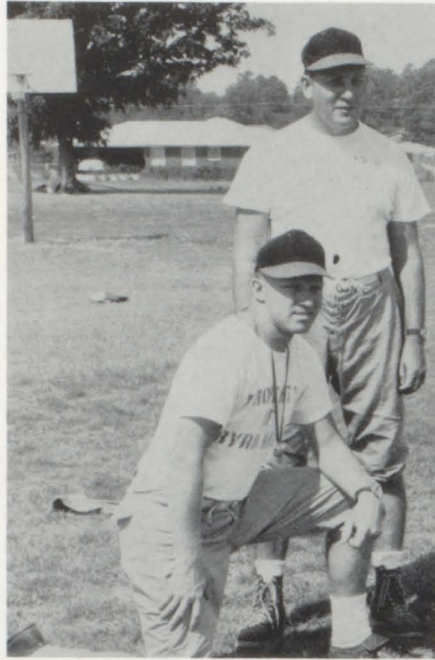

Football practice begins . . . you, the members of the Pep Squad, begin learning formations for the half-time show . . . the cheerleaders go to cheerleading school to learn new yells . . . football practice increases, and before you know it, it is time to elect the Homecoming Court . . . your football team elects the sweetheart . . . the dance after the presentation of the court is one of the high points of the year . . . the tenseness tightens as the season draws to a close, and your last game is coming up . . . when the season closes, you look back and remember the assemblies, Friday night games, dances, and all the fun you had during the football season.

Powerful, fast, and agile are the adjectives which describe the 1957 Byrd High Yellow Jackets. The Jackets rolled to decisive victories over their first four opponents before falling victims to perhaps the two strongest teams in the state, Istrouma and Baton Rouge. Coming back strong in their next three outings, they defeated Ouachita, Bastrop, and Springhill. The victories over West Monroe and Ouachita enabled the Jackets to meet the Fair Park Indians on Thanksgiving Day to decide the IAAA District Championship. The Yellow Jackets met a tribe of inspired Indians who did everything right. Although the Jackets outrushed the Indians they came out on the short end of a 12-7 score. Thus we finished the season with a 7 and 3 record.

Memorial Stadium, Sulphur, September 13

Unleashing a quartet of powerful fast-moving backs, the Yellow Jackets smashed the Sulphur Golden Tornadoes 28-0. Byrd ground out 400 yards before 5,000 fans, leaving no doubt that the Yellow Jackets would be the team to beat in Class AAA grid play this year. Although the Jackets made several fumbles, they made up for it with their splendid teamwork. The first Byrd tally came in the first quarter on an off tackle run of 84 yards by Charles Peatross. Grantham Couch then converted the first of four perfect placements. Byrd's second score came early in the second quarter when Bo Campbell broke through right tackle for 27 yards to cross the Tor goal line. The third Byrd touchdown came near the end of the third quarter on a four-yard dash by Jo Jo Pittman.

The final scoring of the night came when Byrd center Robert Shemwell fell on a blocked Sulphur punt in the Tornado end zone. It was a case of weight, experience, determination, and drive that carried Byrd to an impressive victory.

BYRD-14 WEST MONROE-0

Brown Stadium, Monroe, September 27

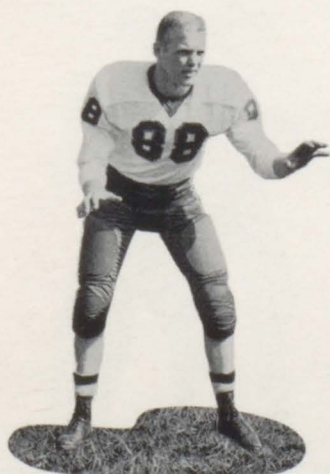

By defeating the West Monroe Rebels, the Byrd Yellow Jackets won their first district IAAA victory. JoJo Pittman, Bo Campbell, and Vaughan Evers led Byrd's ground attack with quarterback Gary Montgomery tossing passes to confuse the Rebels' defense. In the second quarter Campbell sailed around right end from four yards out for the first score. With ten seconds left before the half, Montgomery hit Peatross with a flat pass that carried the Jackets from the Rebels' thirty-five to their one. The next play Peatross stepped across for the score, and Grantham Couch kicked his second conversion of the night. The second half was a great defensive battle with neither side being able to score. The Jackets got to the Rebels' eight-yard line, but were halted by penalties. Byrd's defense in turn stopped the Rebels on their own 15 yard line. Leading the Jackets' defensive attack were Murray Johnston, Joe Zaffater, Robert Davis, Bobby Hamm, Vaughan Evers, Don Douglass, and Robert Shemwell.

BYRD-19 BOSSIER-0

Fair Grounds Stadium, Shreveport, October 3

After two games on the road, Byrd's powerful Yellow Jackets opened the home season by blasting Bossier's Bearcats 19-0, before approximately 18,000 spectators. The Jackets scored in the first quarter by recovering a Bossier fumble on the 21. Charles Peatross ground out 5 yards to the 16. From the 16 Bo Campbell skirted right end, outrunning the Bossier secondary for the score and Byrd led 6-0. Because of heavy penalties, Byrd could not score in the second quarter. In the third quarter a pass interception by Jerry Gill gave Byrd the ball on their own ten. Peatross and Campbell moved the ball out to the 31 where on the next play Vaughan Evers plowed up the middle 69 yards for the second Jacket score. Couch missed his second conversion, and Byrd led 12-0.

Early in the fourth quarter Bossier kicked, and Byrd took over on their own 49. On the first play Charles Peatross raced 51 yards untouched to paydirt. Couch converted, and the Jackets increased their margin 19-0. Standouts on defense were Robert Shemwell, Bobby Hamm, Gary Montgomery, Robert Davis, and Murray Johnston.

Fair Ground Stadium, Shreveport, October 11

The Byrd Yellow Jackets, hit hard by the flu bug, showed their depth and power by crushing Bolton's highly-touted Bears 26-6. Pacing the backfield were Bo Campbell and Charles Peatross. The Yellow Jackets rolled to one score in the first quarter, two in the second and one again in the fourth. Campbell rambled 58 yards for the first score and bulled 4 yards for one of the second quarter scores. "Choppin'" Charlie went over from the 3 for 6 points and ripped 19 yards in the fourth quarter for the final score. For the first time this year the stingy Byrd defense was pierced. The score came on a 60-yard touchdown pass play from Bear quarterback Clifford Forrester to halfback Frankie Boyd. Probably the most exciting play of the game was an intended touchdown pass by Jacket quarterback Sonny Parnell to end Murray Johnston, but the officials ruled Johnston had stepped out of the end zone. The Jackets were led in the line by Robert Davis, Hartie Spence, Bobby Hamm, Murray Johnston, John Ratcliffe, and Larry Rambin.

Fair Ground Stadium, Shreveport, October 18

Riding on a four game winning streak, the Byrd High Yellow Jackets battled the Indians from Istrouma High School and came out on the short end of a 21 to 7 score. The Redskins, capitalizing on 5 Jacket miscues, had little trouble punching over 2 touchdowns in the first half. The first came after the Indians recovered a Byrd fumble on the Jacket 19 yard line. Three plays later Don Smith broke through the Byrd line and romped 15 yards into the end zone for a T.D. Lynn Amedee then kicked the first of 3 perfect points after touchdown conversions. The next "six pointer" came when Smith crashed through the Jacket defenders for 3 yards and a T.D. The Yellow Jackets fought the Tribe evenly through the third quarter. Then, with 4 minutes left in the fourth quarter, Billy Fitzgerald opened an aerial barrage which resulted in a score for each team. Fitzgerald then lofted a pass to end Murray Johnston who received the pigskin on the Indian 15 yard line and outran the Istrouma secondary for the lone Jacket tally. Couch then kicked the extra point.

The last score of the game came when Smith intercepted a Fitzgerald pass and raced 31 yards into the end zone. Billy Fitzgerald, Don Douglass, Sonny Parnell, Robert Davis and Hartie Spence were standouts in the first defeat of the season for the Yellow Jackets.

City Stadium, Baton Rouge, October 24

Playing on a cool, slippery field, Wendell Harris, tailback for the Baton Rouge Bulldogs, with his powerhouse handed the crippled Byrd Squad a 20-0 defeat, the second straight loss for the Yellow Jackets. Baton Rouge High took the opening kickoff and marched 71 yards in six plays for its first score. The Bulldogs struck for their second touchdown with a 73-yard drive. A combination of passes from Joe and Wendell Harris placed the ball on the Byrd 22. After two plays that were good for 20 yards, Wendell blasted over for the score. He missed his PAT try. One drive by the Yellow Jackets in the first half was made up of two first downs. But it was finally halted on the 38 where Baton Rouge took over after four downs. Early in the third period, Byrd had an excellent chance to score following Hartie Spence's block of Joe Harris' punt. The push was halted by a fumble on the Baton Rouge 14.

The Bulldogs scored their final touchdown on a 42 yard pass play from Wendell Harris to end John Stockwell. Byrd made its best sustained drive in the fourth quarter with Fitzgerald's 15-yard pass to Murray Johnston and a 14-yard smash by Charlie Peatross moving the ball to the Bulldog 36, but once more Baton Rouge took over on downs. Baton Rouge drove to Byrd's five later in the final quarter; however, Joe Harris fumbled and Byrd recovered on its 11.

BYRD-41 OUACHITA-0

Fair Grounds Stadium, Shreveport, November 2

Coming back strongly after two defeats, the powerful Yellow Jacket eleven crushed the Lions from Ouachita 41-0. Although it was a conference game, the Lions could muster very little defense against the strong Byrd backs. Byrd used three Ouachita fumbles as steppingstones for their first three scores. Robert Davis recovered the first one on the Jacket 41-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Vaughan Evers displayed a brilliant example of broken field running as he slipped past numerous Lion defenders on a run around left end and a 40-yard touchdown. Hartie Spence pounced on the next loose pigskin on the Lion 13-yard line. Peatross then scored from three yards out. The next fumble was recovered on the Lion 12-yard line. On the next play Campbell raced across for the T.D. Then came the reserves. Starting a drive on Ouachita 43, the Jackets moved down to the 10 where Sonny Parnell hit Charlie Ford with a pass for the fourth touchdown.

The fifth score came with Charles Peatross blasting 38 yards in three tries. The last touchdown came on a 60-yard pass and run play from quarterback Billy Fitzgerald to fullback Charles Peatross. "Iron-toed" Grantham Couch booted five of six PAT attempts. This fine victory can be attributed to the whole squad as each man did his share.

Jo Jo Pittman grabbed the opening kick-off and raced 84 yards for the first Jacket score. Grantham Couch kicked the first of four extra points of the night, and Byrd led 7-0. Climaxing a 60-yard drive in the first quarter, Vaughan Evers plunged over from the one to increase the Jacket lead to 14-0. Just before the half, Bo Campbell scored on a one-yard plunge, and the half-time score stood, Byrd 21, Bastrop 0. Evers scored his second touchdown, and the final Byrd tally, on a 20-yard jaunt in the third quarter, capping a 78-yard Yellow Jacket march.

The Rams finally scored in the last period. Then the Jacket reserves kept them in check for the remainder of the game. Also standing out for the Jackets were Charles Peatross, Bobby Hamm, Murray Johnston, Robert Davis, and Larry Rambin.

The famed speed of Byrd High Yellow Jackets buried the battling Springhill Lumberjacks beneath a 26-0 touchdown avalanche on a muddy State Fair Stadium turf. During the first half, Charles Peatross scored the first two touchdowns on runs of 37 and 6 yards, while the Jackets' defense was holding Springhill to a scant 72 yards. In the second half, Byrd's touchdown brigade struck like lightning flashing in the background. Vaughan Evers took a pitch-out from quarterback Gary Montgomery and raced 15 yards for the third score. On the next series of plays, Robert Davis intercepted a Springhill pass. Byrd's offense marched again with halfback Bo Campbell going 48 yards for the final score. Midway through the final stanza the reserves swarmed on the field and played the rest of the game. Outstanding defensive Jackets were Bobby Hamm, Hartie Spence, Joe Zaffater and Murray Johnston.

BYRD-7 FAIR PARK-12

Fair Grounds Stadium, Shreveport, November 28

A fired up Fair Park football team defeated Byrd's heavily favored Yellow Jackets 12-7 before approximately 10,000 fans at State Fair Stadium on Thanksgiving day. The Jackets took the opening kickoff and marched to three first downs with Peatross and Evers carrying. A penalty stopped the drive, and after an exchange of punts Byrd had the ball once again on their own 24 yard line. However, on the first play a fumble in the Jackets' backfield started the downfall. Although Fair Park lost the ball again, Byrd was forced to punt and kicked to the 38. Fair Park then rolled for a score, sparked by a 14-yard pass from Indian quarterback Richard Bell to halfback Gary Lauter. Then Bell sneaked over from the one-yard line. The Indians took advantage of a Jacket fumble, and four plays later another pass from Bell to Lauter scored for the Indians with what proved to be the winning margin. The score stood 12-0 at the half. The third quarter saw both teams battle on even terms, but with neither team being able to score. About midway through the fourth quarter Byrd took over on their own 28. Jacket quarterback Billy Fitzgerald then threw a long pass to halfback Bo Campbell, covering 69 yards all the way to the Tribe 11-yard line. Three plays later Vaughan Evers crashed over from the 2-yard line. Grantham Couch converted, and that was all the scoring for the day. Byrd got their hands on the ball again right at the end and tried a series of long passes, but a victory just wasn't in the book for the Jackets. Peatross was the top ground gainer for the Jackets with 53 yards. Robert Davis played a tremendous defensive game, recovering fumbles and being in on a number of tackles. Other defensive standouts included Larry Rambin, Hartie Spence, and Joe Zaffater.

HOMECOMING

On Friday, October 18, the Byrd High spirit rose to a high point as the Yellow Jackets rolled into the game with a perfect record. The day began with a pep rally before school. During the assembly, the homecoming court was announced, and the "Old Grads" introduced themselves. At the halftime of the game the court was presented and the senior members were honored. Although the game was a 21-7 disappointment, the dance afterward, sponsored by the Varsity club and held at the Young Men's Progressive Club, was a success.

1958 "BEE" TEAM

Under the leadership of Coach Woodrow Turner the Byrd "Bees" compiled a season record of four wins and one defeat. This one loss was the first in three years of competition for the "Bees." In their first four outings, the "Bees" downed Texarkana 19-0, Minden 20-19, Fair Park 20-0, and Bossier 13-0. The second game with Minden, the last of the season, was a heart breaker with Byrd losing by only one point by a score of 20-19. Wayne Hidalgo, David Zaenglein, and Sonny Parnell were thorns in their opponents' sides. JoJo Pittman and Johnny Parsons sparked an offense which could score from anywhere on the field. Filled with such strong and aggressive players, the Jackets' supporters have much to look forward to in the football world.

Fourth row: Wayne Fortson, Bill McClung, Bill Craine, Cap Middleton, Charles Ford, Bill Bush.

1957 FRESHMAN TEAM

Due to the small number in the Freshman class, the Freshmen and some of the Sophomores merged to make a junior team. Although these boys played only three games, two of which were practice games, they worked hard all during the season. Their first game was a decisive 26-6 win over Springhill. In practice games the juniors chalked victories against Hamilton Terrace, 15-0, and Broadmoor, 13-6. In the future years these boys will make up the "Varsity" team. The junior team was coached by Coaches Rogers and Robertson. Two of the main cogs on the team were Jimmy Caskey and Joe Pharis.

Girls, games, gaiety, and good times—these things are typical of the Stingerettes. Being organized in 1953, the Pep Squad is now an established organization in the City of Byrd. It is composed of approximately 125 girls from the junior and senior classes. The main goal of the Pep Squad is to promote school spirit in all activities.

The Pep Squad sponsored during the year several projects which were of service to the school as well as profitable to them. This year the Peep Show was again presented to kick off the 1957 football season. The profit from this annual affair was used to pay for the football trips and to purchase new sweaters to add to the uniforms. Mums were sold at Homecoming and Thanksgiving. The concession stand in the lobby of the gym was also under the management of the Pep Squad during the basketball season.

Marching activities were under the direction of Dave Braley, right-hand man to Mrs. Lucille Knapp, the Stingerette's sponsor. Their hard work contributed much to the Pep Squad.

Many long hours in practice are spent by our cheerleaders in perfecting school cheers.

This year's school spirit was forwarded more than ever before because of the hard work and tremendous enthusiasm of our 1957-58 cheerleaders. Elected by the entire student body, these senior boys and girls attended the cheerleader school in Huntsville, Texas, where they were judged the best group from those represented there. With the help of various other students, the cheerleaders were responsible for the colorful hoops, banners, and decorations of the goal posts at all the games. The school's magnificent spirit was well led throughout the year by our 1957-58 cheerleaders.

LISTENING TO THE NEWLY ACQUIRED DRUM of the music department are these seniors: Martha Williams, soloist in the A Cappella choir; James Rowland, president of A Cappella choir; Freddie Peters, student conductor of "A" Band; Diane Simmons, band queen; Jimmy Payne, band king.

MUSIC

In the fall of the year:

You spend many hours after school and on Saturdays preparing for Friday night when you will march at halftime at the football game . . . you have your band uniform altered . . . you wonder if you will be accepted into the orchestra and spend hours practicing on a stringed-instrument before that all important try-out . . . when the fair comes, you march in many parades downtown . . . you spend many long hours after school practicing for the annual band assembly and the concerts of the spring . . . you remember the time you had to be excused from choir practice because of a sore throat . . . your choir has been asked to sing at the local churches . . . you elect the new king and queen of the band . . . and with the combined efforts of your classmates, you fill the City of Byrd with music.

BYRD'S "A" BAND IS

The band executes a difficult formation during the half-time of the annual Thanksgiving Day Game with Fair Park.

The Byrd "A" Band this year made appearances for assemblies, March of Dimes, Holiday in Dixie parade, State Fair parade, and half-time performances at football games.

Other musical performances of the concert band included two formal concerts in March and May in addition to concerts in the Junior Highs. An outstanding highlight of the bands activities was to play at the Tommy Sand's premiere. The band had an exchange concert with Istrouma High School in Baton Rouge in May.

MASTER OF MUSIC

The band again was honored by being asked to be in the nationally recognized publication, "First Chair of America." This book presents exclusively the bands, orchestras, and choruses that maintain the highest musical standards.

The band council was elected by the band members after each nominee was okayed by Mr. Benner. The king and queen were also elected by the entire band and were presented in the final concert of the year.

The band has completed a very successful year and maintained the fine tradition of the bands in the past.

Freddie Peters, Stephen Murdoch, and Charles Adams were the Band Student Conductors for this year. This is a very high honor in the band.

Diane has been in the band during her four years at Byrd, playing the percussion instruments. She was in the High School Honor Band at L.S.U. for three years and was elected "friendliest" girl in the Honor Band. She is a member of the First Chair of America and is Red Cross representative for the band this year. In her Junior year Diane was a Junior representative on the band council.

Jimmie has been a member of the "A" band during his four years at Byrd, playing the saxophone. He is a member of the First Chair of America. Jimmie is a Second Lieutenant in the ROTC and is a member of the Officer's and Sponsor's Club.

"A" CHOIR PRESENTS . . .

Byrd's "A" Choir, with the aid of their Parents' Club, presented Gilbert and Sullivan's Opera, "THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE," directed by Mr. Robert N. Hallquist. The choir made two performances, one on Wednesday night and one on Thursday night with entirely different leading characters with the exception of three who played both nights. Van Hardaway and Charles Ford were recognized by the Shreveport Times for their fine jobs. During intermission, the Parents' Club sold cakes. The costumes and scenery were from the Tracy Music Company, Boston, Massachusetts.

Included in Wednesday night's cast were: Charles Ford, Police Sergeant and Pirate; Van Hardaway, Maj. Gen. Stanley; Mary Jane Price, Mabel; Larry Reidhimer, Frederick; Gail Hawkins, Kate; Bob Moore, Pirate King.

Included in the Thursday night's cast were: Barry Hope, Frederick; Martha Williams, Mable; Jo Ella Dormeyer, Kate; Jack Baker, Police Sergeant; Teddy Gaye, Edith; Walter Amacker, Maj. Gen. Stanley; James Rowland, Pirate King.

Marlene Hagedorn, Isabel; Danny Harrelson, Samuel; Lyndra Pate, Ruth, performed in both nights' casts.

Composing the operetta orchestra were: Freddie Peters, Earl Stanage, Charles Adams, Richard Tubbs, Gordon Allen, Tommy Richardson, Gloria Pitchford, Barbara Scott, Dorothy Patterson, and pianist, Patty Breuning.

"THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE"

Mary Jane Price, Mabel, pleads with Larry Reidhimer, Frederick, to stay with her instead of going to the pirates in Wednesday night's performance.

Martha Williams, Mabel, pleads with Barry Hope, Frederick, to stay with her instead of going to the pirates, in Thursday night's performance.

As Maj. Gen. Stanley tells the police about his lying to the pirates about his being an orphan, the pirates slip up to steal his daughters.

The entire cast sings "Hail, Poetry" as Maj. Gen. Stanley tells the pirates that he is an orphan, and they decide not to take his daughters.

Van Hardaway, Maj. Gen. Stanley, bids the police farewell as they go to attack the pirates.

James Rowland, Pirate King, and Danny Harrelson, Samuel, join together as the pirates and General Stanley's daughters wait in the background.

BYRD'S MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Jimmy Owens, uniform manager, tries on a uniform on new member, Charles Grimes.

All-State member on the saxophone, Charles Gautreaux, gets his instrument ready for practice.

IN ITS VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

Douglas Fisher, Charles Adams, and Richard Tubbs compose the cornet trio which played a solo at the Band Concert.

Three managers of the instrument committee are Bobby Brown, George Kneipp, and Tommy Richardson.

The band aids the Pep Squad and the cheerleaders in leading the student body in pep rallies in the new gym.

The "A" Choir Parent's Club sells cakes during intermission at the Operetta put on by the "A" Choir.

Backstage, these girls prepare for their appearance on the Operetta.

GRESSES IN ITS SECOND YEAR

Byrd's Orchestra this year is composed of twelve members. One of the outstanding performances of the year was playing for the "A" Choir Operetta, aided by members from Broadmoor Junior High and St. Vincent Schools. These students came on their own in the afternoon to practice for the Operetta.

The Orchestra gave a Spring Concert in April at the Byrd Youth Center as they did last year.

Some of the pieces they have practiced this year have been written by such outstanding artists as Beethoven, Bach, Mozart, Von Weber, Bartok, and Handel.

Ten pupils have signed from Broadmoor Junior High School to join the Orchestra next year. There is also hope of some joining from Linwood and Hamilton Terrace, where Mr. Caughey now holds classes.

Music from their library and instruments, two of which are violins loaned by two teachers of Byrd to the Orchestra, are available.

Last year the Orchestra gave its first spring concert. The performance was repeated this year.

The director of the Orchestra is Mr. Walter Caughey.

A scene from the "A" Choir Operetta shows the Orchestra in the foreground accompanying.

Anxiously waiting for the opening of the Operetta are these members of the Orchestra.

SENIORS

In the fall of the year . . .

You find that being a Senior is no different from being a Junior, Sophomore or Freshman, because you still have to study . . . you have an extra load on your shoulders because now you and your classmates are the leaders of the school organizations and set the example for the underclassmen . . . now you realize that your success in your studies, athletics, organizations and your leadership must be at the peak because there will be no "next year" . . . it is this year that marks the turning point for many of you . . . after this year you are on your own whether you go to college or whether you find work . . . now you look forward to graduation, but you will always look back on your high school days as a special and magic time of life that can never be again.

IN MEMORIAM

STEVE WILLIAMS
1940-1957

CHRIS FULLILOVE
1940-1957

DAVID TAYLOR
1941-1958

During the year 1957 two tragedies occurred which affected many people at Byrd.

Steve Williams and Chris Fullilove were involved in separate accidents which proved fatal. Although these boys may have been unknown to many, their loss was felt by all.

Shortly after mid-term still another tragedy occurred. David Taylor was taken from our great city by the fatal blood disease, leukemia.

The student body humbly dedicates this page to the memory of Steve Williams, Chris Fullilove, and David Taylor.

THE SENIOR FAVORITES PRESENTED BY

In order to promote a greater distribution of offices and responsibilities at Byrd High School, the Student Council and School Administration have adopted the major-minor system. Under this system a student may hold one major and one minor office or three minor offices. All the clubs at Byrd operate on this system. The people pictured throughout the Senior section all hold a major office.

Senior Favorite is among the honorary offices. The holders of this title are elected by the members of the Senior Class in a special meeting. On January 30, 1958, the Gusher Staff presented these favorites in an assembly.

Mr. and Miss Gusher are elected from the Senior class by the Gusher Staff. They must have attended Byrd at least three years, performed service for the school, and not be a member of the Gusher Staff.

MR. AND MISS GUSHER

Grantham Couch and Elizabeth Rasmussen

The 1958 GUSHER Staff has named Grantham Couch and Elizabeth Rasmussen Mr. and Miss GUSHER for their four years of service to our "City of Byrd." Elizabeth is a member of both the National Honor Society and the Quill and Scroll and is chairman of the Publicity committee of the Student Council. She also writes the weekly column, "Byrd Buzz," which appears in the Shreveport Journal.

During his senior year Grantham was a delegate to Pelican State, is a member of the National Honor Society, and has worked as Chapel leader. He also participated in football and golf. The GUSHER Staff is proud to have two such outstanding students present the 1958 Senior Favorites.

Bk. IV, 1.120

The next act of our play is Winter. While the coming of Nature's winter is marked by cold, misty, rainy days, the coming of winter in our school year is noticeable because this is the time of year that the R.O.T.C. has its Regimental Reception and Pancake supper; the Gusher staff is working hurriedly toward the February deadline, and the basketball team is in the thick of its games. As Winter follows Fall, the Juniors will be next after the Seniors on our marquee, for they will be the stars of next year's cast. As the second act closes in our School Year, our cast, the students of Byrd, are busy preparing for mid-semester exams.

WINTER

WINTER WHIRL

Youth is the time for building habits, hopes, and faith. The Chapel service helps to develop the qualities needed in later life. Many students attend this service at 8:00 on Wednesday mornings. Grantham Couch, the chapel leader, introduces Maggie Schlubach, speaker, and Barry Hope, soloist.

The coming of winter brings with it basketball, Christmas holidays, and hard work. Our gym is a place frequently visited with the school backing our basketball team. With the Christmas assembly, presented by the choir, the much-deserved holidays at long last begin. But all good things must come to an end and the new year heralds the arrival of an earnest effort to get down to the business at hand . . . a high school education.

The winter months bring exciting games full of spirit and fast action. A fine example of teamwork is demonstrated in this Byrd-Fair Park game as Rod Yeager (44) tips the ball to Johnny Byrd (50) as the Jackets prepare to score once again.

Our school principal, Mr. Duncan, and the members of the faculty set aside every Monday afternoon to meet and discuss the various school organizations and make necessary announcements. Without the hours of work spent by each teacher, Byrd would not have its present foundation for a high school education.

A welcome break from the classroom and book routine is the noon day meal. Between bites and the clanking of silverware the students try to get a tip on that test they are having next period.

After the class pictures are taken, every student must return their proofs for printing. Homer Blaine, Lorraine Holley, and Richard Daniels put their proofs in the designated box by the Gusher office.

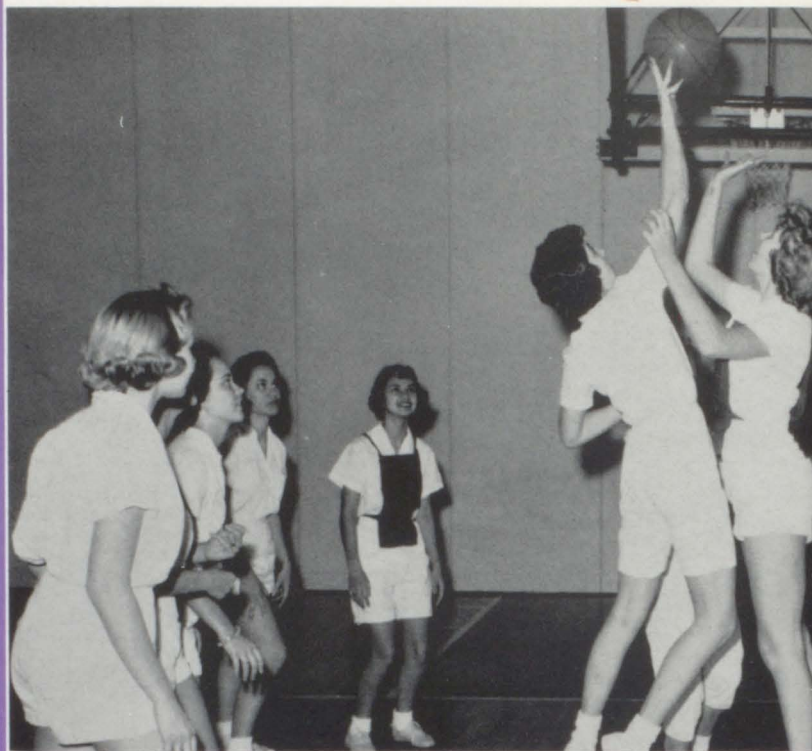

These twenty-six girls combine cooperation, time, and effort perfecting their drills to make the motto, "practice makes perfect," a symbol for them. Due to the winter weather, the Drum Corp of the Pep Squad was forced to practice their drills in the gym.

Learning picks up with an ever-increasing force as the school digs into its books. Here, in the learning of facts, can be found the means to success in everyday life. Here is the nourishment that will build a strong America. Here is the security that man spends a life-time seeking. Here is knowledge.

Even though the world outside may look cold and lifeless, the City of Byrd is very much alive with the various winter activities. The clubs organized in the fall are in full swing with their projects and other duties to perform. This season also brings with it the excitement brought about every year when the 1958 Gusher Senior Favorites are announced in a surprise assembly. Both the High Life and Gusher staffs, busily compiling our school newspaper and school year-book, try to meet each dreaded deadline.

Exercise is a vital factor in every young person's life. The gym program at Byrd provides an outlet for the various types of recreations. Engaging in the numerous types of athletic activities not only provides exercise but allows the student to learn the rules

This winter the R.O.T.C. sponsored a basketball game between the instructors and the Patton Platoon to raise money to send the Patton Platoon to Arlington, Texas, for drill competition. All of the sponsors put on a half time show which consisted of an inspection. These girls were dressed in everything imaginable which would make them look as ridiculous as possible.

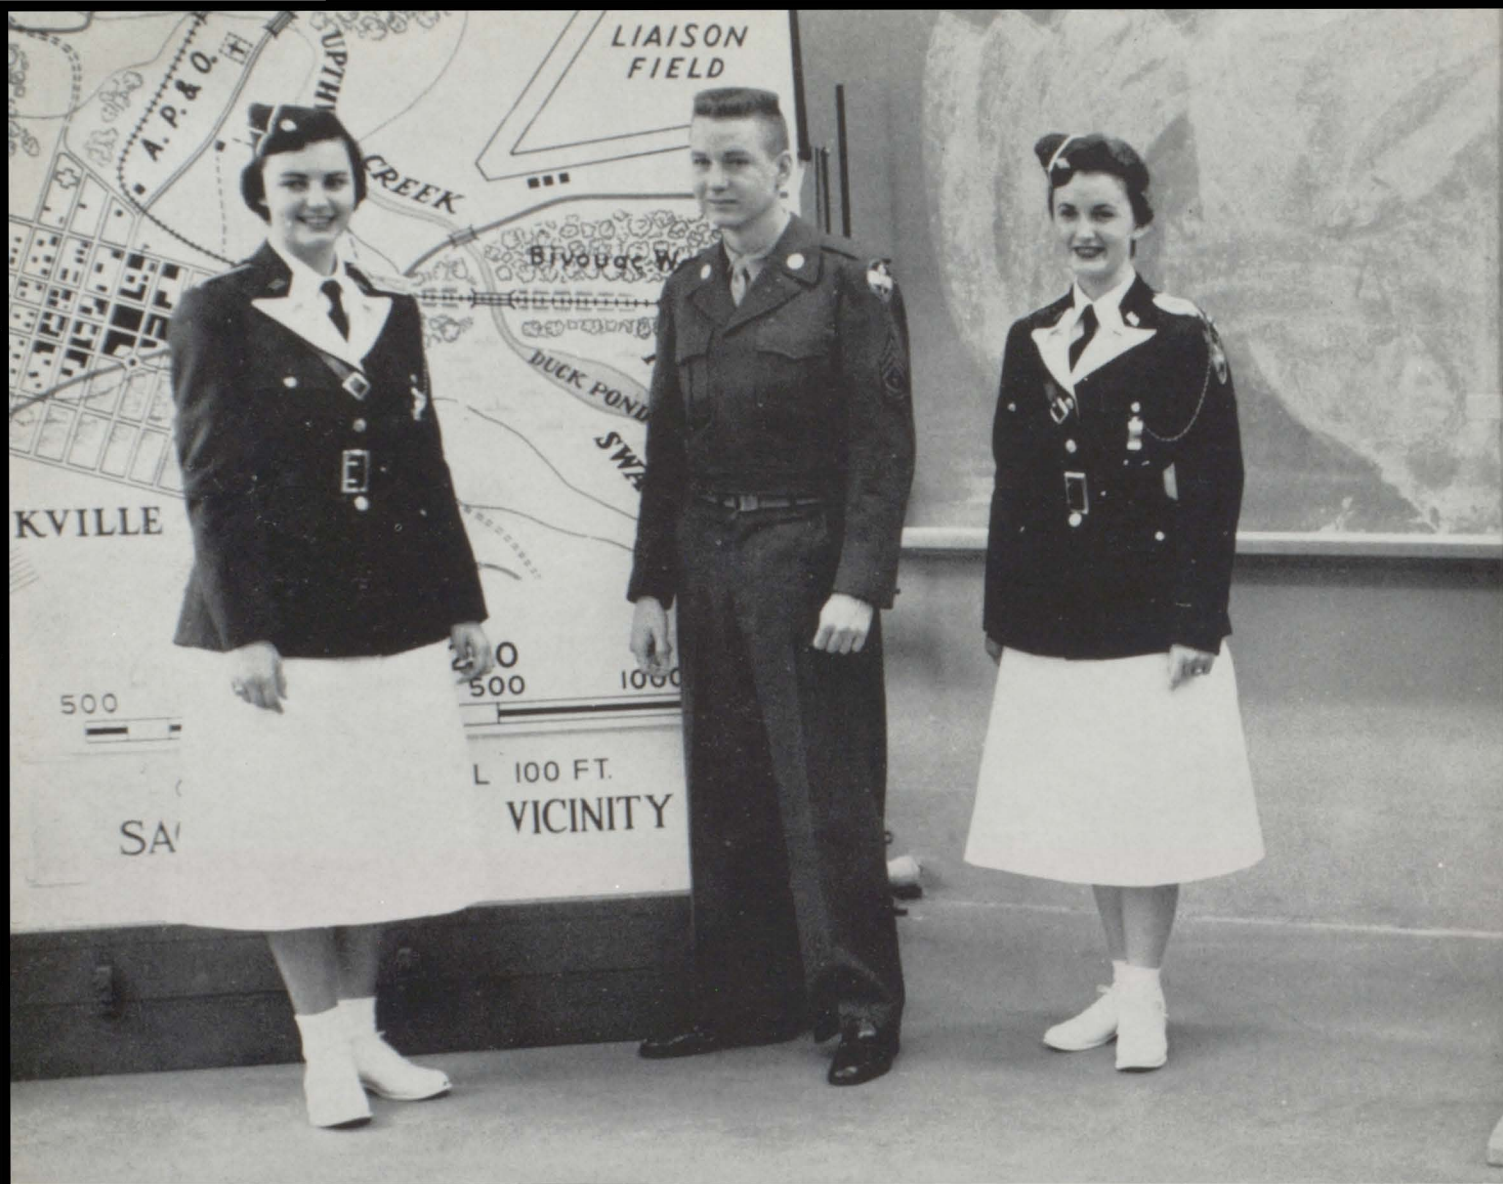

In the Christmas assembly Jerry Jouett, in behalf of the student body, presented Monica Johannson, our exchange student from Sweden, a senior ring with the inscription, "To Monica from Byrd" on it. Everyone in the school contributed to the collection so that our friend could have her wish come true.

In order to escape the inevitable burial of studying in the gloom of the winter months, the weekend brings a satisfaction which every student seeks. This satisfaction may come in the form of a high school dance, a movie, or just a quiet evening in front of the television set. To many, however, the winter months provide the perfect setting for dreams of the days that will be spent on the tennis courts in the spring or just plain wondering about what tomorrow will bring. But as the whirl of winter draws to a close it seems to dispel the gloom of winter by offering new hope for the first appearance of Spring Fever.

of good sportsmanship and teamwork. After learning the basic rules of basketball, this gym class applies these rules in a game of their own.

Three times during the year the students have the opportunity to order a Gusher. Linda Hope turns in a list of the subscriptions from her homeroom to business staff members Jim Jeter and Virginia Ferguson.

Before the Christmas holidays members of the Distributive Education Club wrapped presents for the faculty members. Here we see Shirley Hill, Joyce Horn, Betty Bunch, and Glynda Stephens busy at work.

MILITARY

In the Winter:

As winter comes you change to your winter military uniforms . . . you spend hours shining that brass so you will be able to pass inspection . . . the Military Ball draws near and you wonder whom to ask . . . you miss the parade Tuesday to have your Gusher picture made . . . you are surprised to learn you have been promoted . . . you try out for the rifle team . . . that map reading test slips up on you . . . it's hard to keep your shoes shined, brass polished, hair combed, but it's worth it to be in the ROTC.

Organized in 1936, the Officers and Sponsors' Club helps to cultivate spirit and cooperation between the cadets and their officers. During the year the club has undertaken various projects and participated in numerous activities. At the beginning of the year the club held a pancake supper to raise money for new sabers for the officers. The activities for the month of March included the Military Ball, given for all the cadets, and a Wild-West Party honoring the members of the club. Mrs. Lucille McClendon and M/Sgt. George Banks were the sponsors this year.

FIRST RIFLE TEAM

The Byrd Rifle Team has added another successful year to its record. Among the matches entered were the Fourth Army, the National Rifle Association, the City League, and the Hersh Trophy. Third place was won in the Hersh Trophy Match. This year, as in the past, the Byrd Rifle Team went to Arlington, Texas, for the Fourth Army Match, where there was competition from 25 schools. This year the Byrd Rifle Team was under the command of Cadet Captain Benjy Carpenter, with his sponsor, Captain Maxine Worley. The two other Rifle Team sponsors were First Lieutenant Martha Gillispie and Second Lieutenant Karen Ford. This year concluded M/Sgt. Jones' tour of duty at Byrd and with the Byrd Rifle Team.

SECOND TEAM

PATTON PLATOON

Byrd High School has a crack drill team which is called the Patton Platoon. This year the drill team is under the command of Major Jimmy Pate and assistant command of Second Lieutenant Jack Baker. Sergeant Melvin Murray is the sponsor.

The rifle movements performed by the Patton Platoon are presented at halftime at the football games, downtown parades, and other special events. The drill team participated in the drill team competition at Arlington, Texas. While there they placed second on the drill field. The boys practice many long and hard hours after school each day.

PLATOON OFFICERS

Major Jimmy Pate, Major Diane Griffin, Captain Johnny Edgar, Captain Etna Scrivner.

CLUB OFFICERS

Hubert Skidmore, Vice President; Ward Willis, Secretary; Jerry Weldon, Treasurer; Otis Honeycutt, Sergeant-at-Arms.

VISITING WITH ONE ANOTHER BEFORE A QUILL AND SCROLL MEETING are these senior members: Jim Jeter, business manager of the Gusher; Jimmy Lewis, business manager of the High Life; Anne Moreneaux, business manager of the High Life; Elizabeth Rasmussen, Editor of the Byrd Buzz; David Tyrrell, advertising manager of the Gusher.

PUBLICATIONS

During the winter:

You are hard at work trying to fill that extra space on the feature page of the High Life . . . the GUSHER photographer is rushing about trying to finish taking all the class pictures . . . the High Life comes out around Christmas with Mr. and Miss Mistletoe . . . you read about the latest news around Byrd in the Byrd Buzz, a weekly column in one of the local papers . . . the GUSHER makes its trip to the Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas . . . you are thrilled when you see one of your friends has been selected one of the personalities in the High Life . . . you are interviewed by the Inquiring Reporter on a controversial topic . . . you think you will never make the GUSHER deadline of March 1st, but you do.

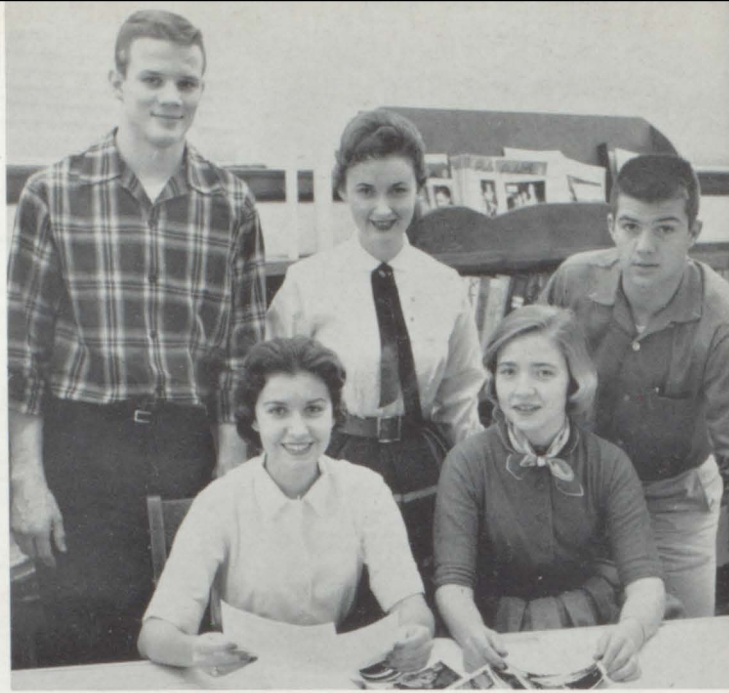

Associate editor Charles Peatross and Editor Jan Heard check classification listings for the 1958 Gusher.

It's a long time from September to March, especially when you're preparing the Gusher for publication. "Going crazy and biting ourselves" is not the occupation of the Gusher staffs, but it often occurs. The editorial staff draws the pages and assembles your yearbook. "Would you like to buy an ad in the Gusher?"—this is the plea of the business staff, whose job is to sell advertisements and to distribute the finished product. The art staff designs the cover and does the art work throughout the book. That wild flash isn't a fire; it is the Gusher photographers at work. The editorial staff receives a great deal of help from them.

Merrit Chastain, Vicki Longmire, and Tommy Hogan deliver receipts for the 1958 Gusher.

Murray Johnston, Martha Yancey, Naomi Colbert, Clowe Wright, and Don Durr choose pictures and check copy sheets.

The 1957 Gusher competed with yearbooks from schools of two thousand or more. In the Columbia University Yearbook survey our annual won a First Place rating and an A plus from the National School Yearbook Association. The September issue of the nationally known magazine, Photolith, there was an article on the '57 Gusher.

To the students and faculty of Byrd High School the members of the Gusher staffs present the 1958 Gusher. Your yearbook records the pleasant memories of the activities, organizations, honors, and spirit of your high school years—the golden years. The staffs would like to acknowledge your contributions and participation with this tribute to you—the 1958 Gusher.

Advertising Manager, David Tyrrell, and Business Manager, Jim Jeter check posters for one of three Gusher sales at the last minute.

Sanda Grage, Lois Wray, Claudia Sturges, James Burroughs, and Vicki Meador check the appointments for class pictures. To avoid confusion students were given dates to have their pictures taken.

GUSHER

Sandra Poss, Rucky Ogilvie, Susan Bronson, Benny Harris, and James Neely prepare a box of completed pages for shipment.

Walter Amacker, Freddy Peters, Senior Photographer; and Jim Darby choose the best of their work.

At the right Sarah Sloane, Julie Courtney, Hoyt Bain, and Betty Turner select pictures for the ad sections. There are activity shots through this section.

IT TAKES A YEAR TO BUILD A YEARBOOK

David Tyrrell was the "judge" of the court presenting the Senior Favorites.

Miss Harris and Miss Sanders, the sponsors of the GUSHER, check the final picture-taking schedule.

"Have Court, Will Convict." Members of the "jury": Sanda Grage, Claudia Sturges, Jim Jeter, Sarah Turnley, and Naomi Colbert announce the Senior Favorites during the surprise assembly on January 30, 1958.

Staff members Virginia Ferguson, Marilyn McGuffin, Becky Schergers, and Barbara Ferguson are pictured writing receipts for the 1800 GUSHER subscribers.

February 7 and 8, 1958, are days which the Gusher staffs will not soon forget. They explored the Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas and as shown here used the company's yearbook libraries.

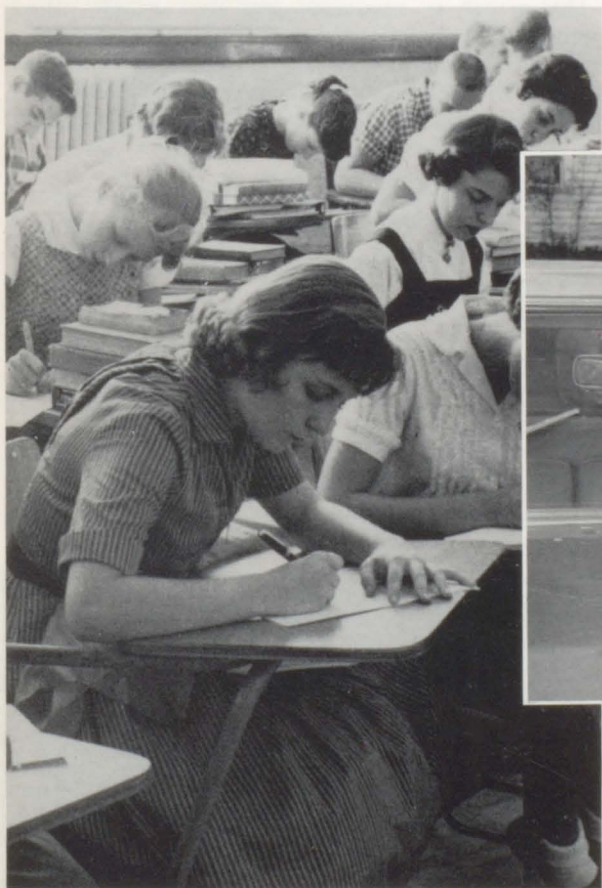

AND A DEVOTED STAFF TO DO IT WELL

David Tyrrell and Barbara Ferguson of the Business staff put up the first poster of the 1958 Gusher sale as Martha Jones and Tommy Richardson watch.

On the appointed day students appear dressed in suit and tie at the Gusher office. Members of the Editorial staff take their money and the students wait their turn to have their pictures made.

Jackie Reed has just found the advertisement on Celia Middlebrook's car to remind her not to forget the Gusher sale the next day. The business staff distributed these over the school and the parking lot the day before the sale.

Many students are applying for the 1958 Gusher staff. They have to fill out an application blank which is considered by the Staff.

HIGH

Published once every three weeks, The High Life, the official newspaper of Byrd, contains all the current news of the school.

This paper is organized into two groups, the Business Staff and the Editorial Staff. The advertising and circulation groups compose the Business Staff, while the Editorial Staff consists of the art group, the journalism classes who serve as reporters, and the staff members who make up the paper.

During the year the High Life sponsors several contests, such as "Mr. and Miss Mistletoe" during the Christmas season, and the "Friendliest" contest in the spring.

Marilyn Serra, art staff; Paul Ware, circulation manager; Sam Timpa and Jimmy Hartwell, art editors; and Prissy Poindexter, exchange editor, look over the latest paper with smiles of approval.

Advertising manager Betty Kaye Floyd, business manager Jimmy Lewis, assistant business manager Rick Biggs, advertising manager Sandra McGarrie, and business manager Anne Moreneaux work out the financial problems of running a newspaper.

Morning editors Lynn Meyer and Sandy Trust, club editor Martha Jones, and sports editor Johnny Edgar compare two copies of the High Life for new ideas.

LIFE

The High Life was awarded the Medalist Rating by the Columbia Scholastic Association in 1957, the highest award a publication can receive; and it won the Quill and Scroll "A" award and International Honor Rating in 1957.

The faculty sponsors are Mrs. O. M. Ewart for the Editorial Staff and Mrs. Zachary Breazeale for the Business Staff.

In order to cover all the happenings of our city it is necessary to have reporters to keep our High Life in the top rating. This journalism class helps collect the various articles.

Lottye Spitzer, Jean Homan, Julia King, Jean Hollowell, Ginny Bray, and Sammy Titone are the members of the ad staff. An essential part to the High Life is the ads, and these staff members play an important part in the compiling of a newspaper as highly rated as the High Life of Byrd.

Serving as reporters for the numerous articles of the High Life is this journalism class, composed of underclassmen.

BASKETBALL

After the first four games of the season, the Byrd Jackets hit their stride by winning eight straight games. From that point on the team steadily improved. During the season the Jackets participated in five tournaments and reached the semi-finals in all but two of these, and were runners-up in the Minden tourney. Five of the Jacket victories were important ones over our crosstown rival Fair Park. In district play, Byrd had to settle for second best losing two close contests to champion Ouachita. The key to the success of the season was experience and height. Four returning lettermen led the Jackets to a total of 22 victories while losing only 12. The Jackets also gained a spot in the state play-offs, but plagued by injuries, lost to St. Aloysius of New Orleans.

FAIR PARK

Byrd's experienced Yellow Jackets opened the 1957-58 basketball season with a 49-34 victory in the Byrd gym over the Indians from Fair Park. Doug Cherry led all scorers with 21 points. Fair Park led 10-9 at the end of the first quarter, but the Jackets led 25-14 at the half and then coasted to victory.

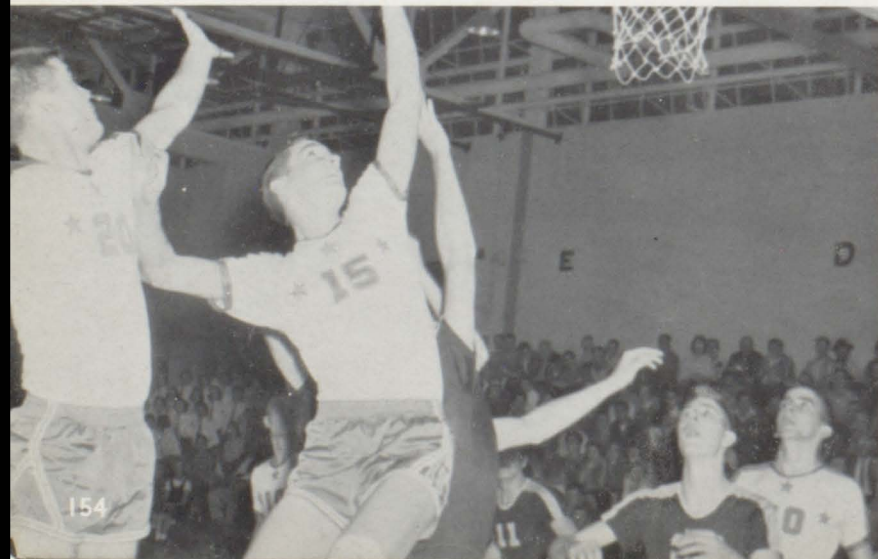

NORTH CADDO

The basketballers from Byrd High chalked up their second straight win with a 43-32 win over North Caddo. The Jackets dominated the game all the way and were never threatened. Rod Yeager and Doug Cherry led the scorers with 13 and 12 points respectively. One of the main factors of the victory was the excellent rebounding of Johnny Byrd and Roy Dea.

GIBSLAND

On the very next night Coach Robertson's team journeyed to Ringgold for the annual Ringgold tournament. In the first round the Jackets were knocked out 48-43 by Gibsland. A total of 25 personal fouls, which contributed 20 of Gibsland's points, was a deciding factor.

The Jackets control the backboard as Bob Watson and Doug Cherry rebound.

BOSSIER

Bossier evened Byrd's record at 2-2 with a 69-64 victory over the Jackets in a thrilling game. The lead in the game changed hands many times. At the half the Bearkats led 38-35. With 15 seconds left and the Jackets trailing 65-64, Byrd controlled the ball for a last shot, but lost it on a bad pass. Then Bossier had the game in the bag. Rod Yeager led the varsity scoring with 19 points, followed by Doug Cherry and Johnny Byrd with 15 apiece.

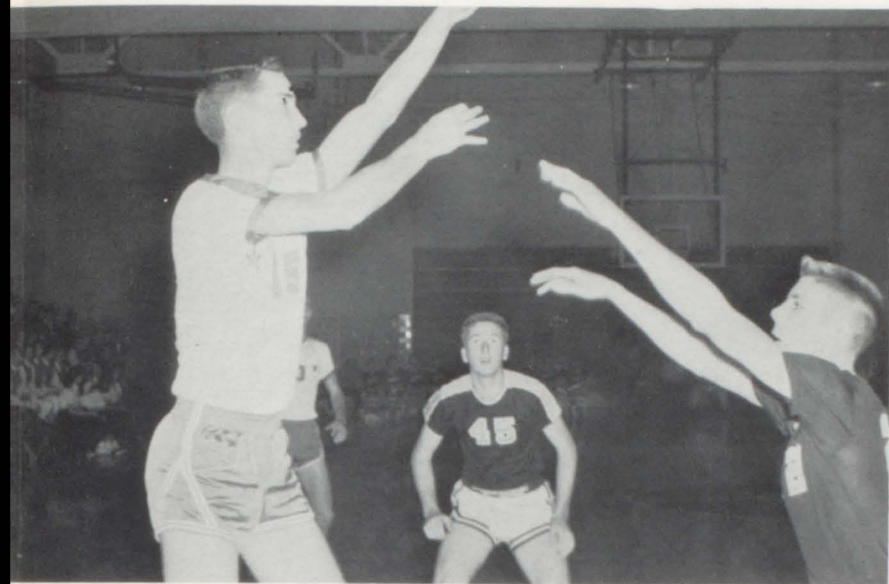

ST. JOHN'S

Once again the Jacket cagemen got back on the win streak with a resounding 77-47 over St. John's Blue Flyers. Byrd was never threatened as they built up a 32-16 half-time lead. Pacing the Jackets was long John Byrd with 18 points and 12 rebounds. Doug Cherry and Bob Watson followed with 17 and 16 respectively.

THOMAS JEFFERSON

The last game before the Christmas holidays saw Coach Robertson's crew edge Thomas Jefferson of Dallas 44-42 in the Jacket gym. The Jackets rolled to a 31-21 halftime lead. In the third quarter Byrd could only get three points, and the Jeffs led 35-34. The fourth quarter saw both teams trying to control the ball with the Yellow Jackets winning. Billy Fitzgerald led the scoring with 15 markers. This victory gave the Jackets a 4-2 record for the holidays.

ST. JOHN'S

After approximately a two week lay off for Christmas vacation, the Yellow Jackets stormed back with a convincing 74-40 win over the St. John's Blue Flyers. Playing before a giant assembly of the school, the Byrdmen completely dominated the game with everybody on the squad seeing action. Leading the Jacket attacks were Billy Fitzgerald and Johnny Byrd with 18 and 14 points respectively.

LA GRANGE

Friday night saw the action swing over to Fair Park as the Jackets and Indians played host to two South Louisiana teams, La Grange and Lake Charles, in a doubleheader. In the Byrd game the Jackets stomped the highly touted La Grange Gators 54-37. Johnny Byrd was once again outstanding with 21 points and Rod Yeager hit 15 tallies.

LAKE CHARLES

The next night saw the same thing at the Jacket gym. With Byrd playing in the night cap this time, the Jackets beat Lake Charles 57-48. Lake Charles led most of the way of a close, exciting game, but a fourth quarter surge by the Byrdites pulled it out of the fire. This gave the Jackets a 7-2 record and 5 straight wins. Doug Cherry turned in a fine performance with 26 points.

SPRINGHILL

Springhill's Lumberjacks were the next victims of the Byrd steamroller, falling 52-46 in the Lumberjacks' gym. It was a nip and tuck battle all the way with the lead changing hands many times. Although Springhill led most of the second half, the Jackets turned on the steam in the last quarter to down Springhill. Leading all scores was Jacket guard Billy Fitzgerald with 18 tallies. This was the sixth straight victory of the Byrd cagemen, and it was all team effort.

MARTHAVILLE

In the first round of their own tournament, the Yellow Jackets crushed Marthaville 57-34. Playing before a fine crowd, the Byrdmen led 26-17 at the half and then exploded in the third quarter to stretch the lead to 20 points. Doug Cherry and Billy Fitzgerald paced the Jackets with 15 and 14 points respectively. Johnny Byrd once again displayed his fine rebounding talents as he hauled in 10 rebounds. The Marthaville team just did not have the height and depth of the Jackets. In the closing minutes Coach Robertson cleaned the bench to give his reserves some valuable experience.

FAIR PARK

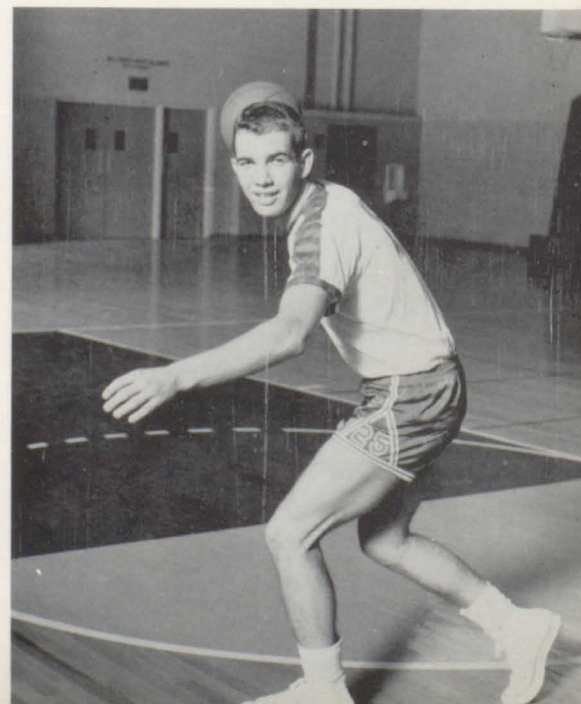

The next night the Jackets advanced to the semifinal round of the Second Annual Byrd Tournament with a decisive 63-55 win over Fair Park. Billy Fitzgerald, Rod Yeager, and Johnny Byrd led the Byrd offense with 17, 12, and 11 points respectively. The score at the half was 40-17 in favor of the Byrdmen. In the second half Coach Robertson let his regulars rest, and the reserves finished the game. Jacket reserve, Joe Abendroth, pitched in 6 points.

MINDEN

In the semi-final round, Minden's Crimson Tide snapped the Jacket win skein of eight straight with a 61-34 win. The ball just wouldn't seem to drop in for Byrd and they really never were in the game. This loss eliminated Byrd from their own tournament. Minden and Bossier met in the finals which Bossier won for the second straight year with George Natlin being selected "Most Valuable Player." Johnny Byrd and Doug Cherry from Byrd were named to the All-American team.

NORTH CADDO

Playing on their home court, Byrd's fast-breaking cagemen drubbed the Rebels from North Caddo 59-34. The Jackets completely dominated the game while chalking up their second victory over the Rebels. The score stood 27-12 at the half, and the Byrdmen scored 21 points in the third quarter to lead 49-17. From that point on the Jacket reserves played a part in the victory. Leading the Jackets was long Johnny Byrd with 16 markers. Rod Yeager and Billy Fitzgerald scored 13 and 12 points respectively.

MINDEN TOURNAMENT

SPRINGHILL

Doug Cherry hit 21 points as the Jackets once again seemed to hit their stride by downing Springhill 55-42 in the first round of the Minden Tournament.

DOYLINE

In the semi-final round the Jackets stopped Doyline 61-39. Doyline had previously upset Bossier in this tournament. Doug Cherry once again led the Jackets with 18 points, and the victory put Byrd in the finals of the tournament.

MINDEN

Once again Minden's Crimson Tide defeated the Jackets and snapped a four game winning streak by downing Byrd 48-39 in the finals of their own tournament. It was an exciting game all the way with the lead changing hands many times. The Jackets did everything except win the tournament. Rod Yeager received the Sportsmanship award, and Doug Cherry was voted to the all-tournament team.

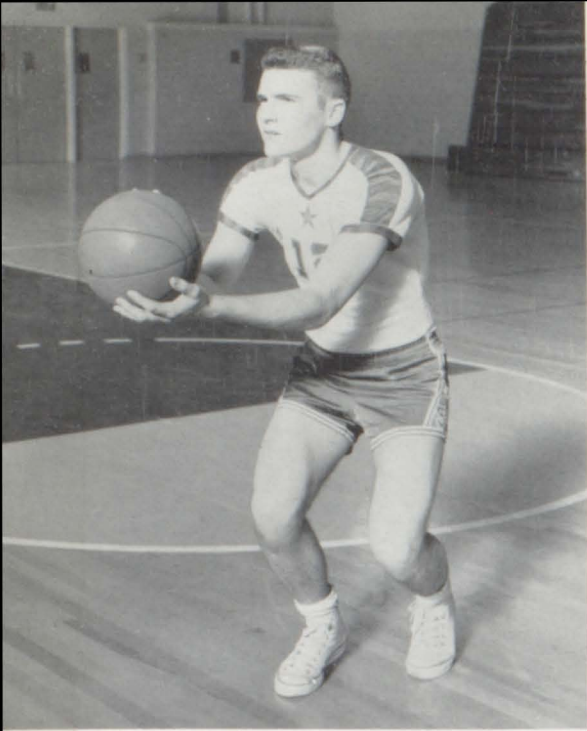

OUACHITA

Ouachita's Lions handed Byrd its first district defeat by upsetting the Jackets 51-41. Byrd jumped off to a quick 8-2 lead, but at the end of the first quarter led only 10-8. The next quarter saw the Lions go ahead and hold a 23-18 margin at the half. Just as the third quarter opened, the lead was cut to one point, but that was as close as the Yellow Jackets could come. The Jackets missed many easy shots and the Lions capitalized on these mistakes to take the game. Pacing the Jacket scoring was Johnny Byrd with 13 points.

MINDEN

For the first time this season the Byrd Yellow Jackets defeated the Minden Crimson Tide in Minden, 58-47, to break a two game losing streak which started with a loss to Minden. Twice previously this year Minden spilled the Jackets while they were on winning streaks. Byrd was in the lead all the way, jumping off to a 15-5 lead at the end of the first quarter and holding a commanding 31-28 margin at halftime. In the second half the action was much the same as the Jackets maintained their lead. Billy Fitzgerald and Bob Watson led the scoring with 16 points and 14 points respectively.

BOSSIER TOURNAMENT

FAIR PARK

For the fourth time this season the Byrd Yellow Jackets defeated Fair Park, this time 66-47 in the first round of the Bossier Tournament. The Jackets dominated the game entirely, leading by wide margins all the way. Coach Robertson inserted some of his reserves to gain added experience on the team. Bubba Rasberry, Donny Gilcrease, and Johnny Dalton all turned in fine performances for the Jackets. Doug Cherry ripped the nets for 18 points to head the scoring. This victory gave the Byrdmen a fine 16-5 record as they advanced to the semi-final against the host team Bossier.

Long Johnny Byrd drives in for a crisp shot.

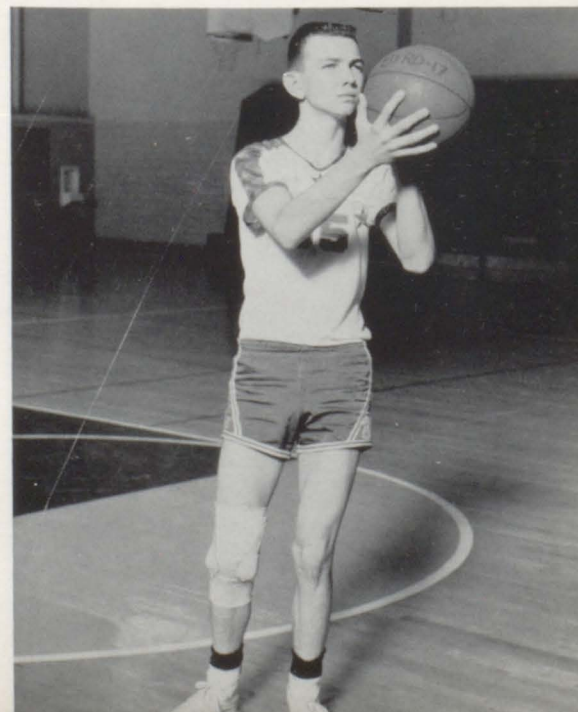

BOSSIER

Bossier's Bearkats edged the Jackets in Bossier's own tournament 49-45. It was another one of those thrilling games with the lead changing hands all through the game. Byrd trailed 19-17 at the half and never could get ahead to stay in the second half and so the Jackets came out on the short end of the score.

Bossier went on to defeat Minden to win the tournament. Billy Fitzgerald led Jacket scoring with 21 points against the Bearkats and earned a spot on the all-tournament team.

WEST MONROE

Byrd's Yellow Jackets gained an important victory by defeating the West Monroe Rebels, 71-52, in a district battle at Monroe. This win put the Jackets in a tie for first place in district standing with West Monroe and Ouachita. Playing in foreign territory held no fears for the Jackets as five of them hit in the double figures. The Jackets completely dominated; players Doug Cherry, Johnny Byrd, and Bubby Rasberry hauled down many a rebound to aid the cause. The score at the half was 34-22 in favor of Byrd, and the second half saw the Byrdmen steadily increase their lead. Lanky John Byrd led Jacket scoring with 16 points.

BOSSIER

For the third time this year the Bossier Bearkats stopped the Byrd Jackets, this time 61-52 in the Jacket's gym. At the start of the game it looked like a change of events as Byrd quickly jumped off a 14-4 lead at the end of the first quarter. After that point the Bearkats slowly but surely whittled Jackets' lead and finally went ahead 27-26 just before the half ended. The second half saw Bossier steadily increase the lead. A main factor in the loss was the high number of fouls committed by the Jackets. Billy Fitzgerald was the bright spot in Byrd's attack with 17 tallies.

FAIR PARK TOURNAMENT

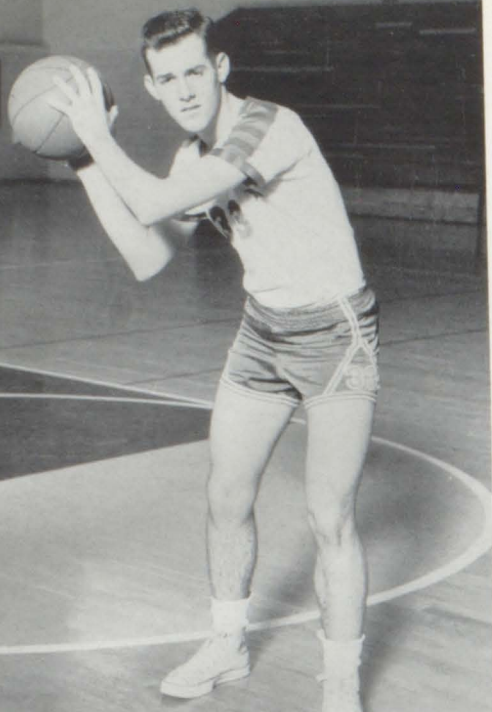

BIENVILLE

The Byrd Yellow Jackets mauled the Bienville Bobcats, 51-30, in the first round of the annual Fair Park Tournament. This was the Jackets' eighteenth win in 25 starts. Action in the game was slow in the first half with the halftime score amounting to only 18-11. But the Jackets erupted for 20 points in the final quarter to widen the margin. Doug Cherry was high point man for Byrd with 16 points. After this victory the Jackets got a day off before returning to action in the tournament on Saturday playing the winner of the Springhill, Pleasant Hill game.

PLEASANT HILL

In the second round of the Fair Park Tournament, Pleasant Hill wasn't so pleasant as they whacked the Jackets 65-52. The game wasn't as one-sided as the score indicates. At the end of the first quarter the Jackets led, and the score was tied at halftime. But it was about halfway through the third quarter that, in about two minutes time, Pleasant Hill got an eight point lead that couldn't be overcome. The rest of the game was played on even terms. Leading scorer for the Jackets was Doug Cherry with 18 points. Cherry was named to the all-tournament team for the third time in the last four tournaments.

BOLTON

The Byrd Yellow Jackets opened a three day southern trip with the Bolton Bears at Alexandria and were defeated 68-63. Although the Jackets made more field goals, Bolton capitalized on 24 personal fouls committed by Byrd. Doug Cherry, Rod Yeager, and Billy Fitzgerald all fouled out. Yeager, Cherry, and Johnny Byrd led the scoring with 14, 13, and 12 points respectively.

ISTROUMA

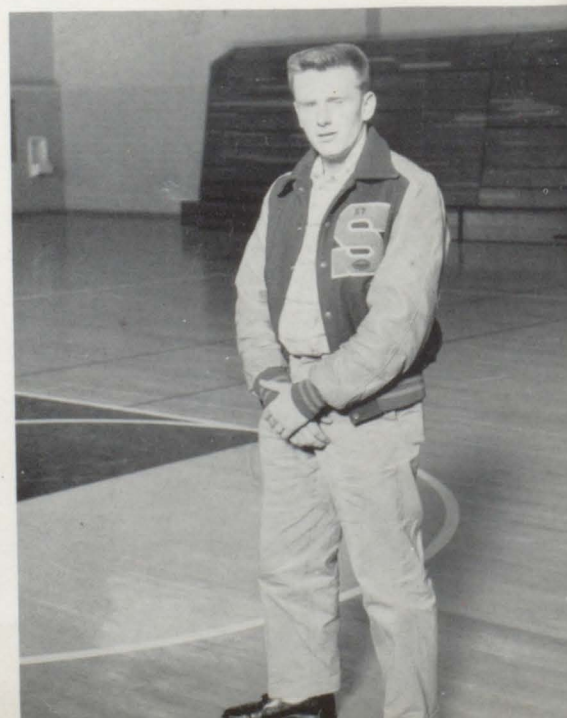

In the second game of the tour, Byrd downed Istrouma 47-46 in an overtime. Down 10 points at the half, the Jackets surged back to cut the lead to three points at the end of the third quarter. With two minutes left and the score 46-46, Byrd controlled the ball for a last shot, but this plan didn't work, throwing the game into an overtime. The same thing happened in the overtime, but when Billy Fitzgerald drove in for the last shot, he was fouled with 5 seconds remaining. Fitzgerald sank his free throw, giving the Jackets their one point victory.

DE LA SALLE

Defending state champions De La Salle handed the Jackets their tenth loss in 29 starts 64-51. De La Salle led all the way, and the only bright spot in the Jacket line-up was Johnny Byrd with 16 points. This left the Jackets with a creditable 19-18 record to carry home.

WEST MONROE

In an important district game, the Byrd Yellow Jackets trampled the West Monroe Rebels 64-41 to cinch a spot in the play-offs. Holding a 36-19 lead at the half, the Jackets stormed back and increased their lead to 32 points before the reserves took charge. Pacing the Jackets was Doug Cherry with 19 points. Johnny Byrd also chipped in 18 points. Jackets reserve Jimmy Williams hit 4 points.

MINDEN

Despite the loss of captain Rod Yeager, who came down with glandular fever, the Byrd Yellow Jackets downed the powerful Minden tide 43-39. The Jackets led all the way through the game and once led by 12 points. At the start of the fourth quarter Minden whittled the Byrd lead to one point. But the Jackets found the range again and weren't threatened for the remainder of the game. Spearheading the Jacket attack was Johnny Byrd with 13 points. Bubba Rasberry also did a fine job of rebounding.

OUACHITA

Playing away from home, the Byrd Yellow Jackets absorbed their most decisive loss of the season losing to Ouachita 60-53. Although they still were in contention for play-offs this loss lost the Jackets a chance for the district championship. Doug Cherry and Johnny Byrd led the Jackets with 20 and 14 points respectively.

FAIR PARK

The Byrd Yellow Jackets gained second place in the district and a state playoff berth by downing the Fair Park Indians 52-39 before almost 2,000 spectators. The Jackets jumped off to a 7-0 lead, but the Indians fought back to tie the score. At the half the Jackets held a 6 point advantage with a score of 22-16. The second half was much the same as the first; in the fourth quarter the Indians tired, and the Jackets won handily. Cherry and Byrd paced with 18 and 15 tallies respectively.

ST. ALOYSIUS

In the first game of the State play-offs St. Aloysius ended Byrd's hopes of a State title by crushing the Jackets 70-38 in New Orleans. Rod Yeager was the only bright spot with 16 tallies. Thus ended the season with a 22-12 record.

Before the opening gun of the Fair Park game, on Thursday, February 20, the 1957-58 Basketball Court was presented to the student body. It was the first time in the history of Byrd that a court had been elected to reign over a basketball game. The court consisted of one girl from the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes elected by the students of these classes. The sweetheart must be a Senior and was elected by the basketball team. The girls were escorted from mid-court by members of the team to the bench where they were seated in a place of honor surrounded by the team: Mr. Duncan presented orchids to the members of the court, and Rod Yeager, Captain, presented a basketball autographed by all the players to the sweetheart. The Jackets won the game 52-39 to complete a successful evening.

The 1957-58 Byrd "B" team under the guidance of coach John Rogers climaxed a successful season in preparation for future varsity play. Although the "B" team won only ten games while losing twelve, much valuable experience was gained by the team which was composed mostly of sophomores. Important victories included wins over every team in the district and over Minden and Springhill. Leading scorers for the junior Jackets were Jimmy Williams, Joe Abendroth, and Pete Seale. It was also thanks to the spirited play of these boys that they got most of the rebounds.

SPRING

*"Gentle Spring! in sunshine clad,
Well dost thou thy power display!
For Winter maketh the light heart sad,
And thou, thou maketh the sad heart gay."*

Charles D' Orleans "Spring"

Spring is the title of our third act of the School Year. Nature's spring marks the coming of new things such as the budding of flowers, new sprigs on the branches of trees, and small animals running here and there. Spring of our School Year is no exception, for this is the time of the year when most of next year's officers of various organizations are elected. Members are elected to the National Honor Society and to Pelican State, and various other honors are conferred by special departments of the school. Spring is the beginning of a new track team that has been successful in the past years. Billed next to the Juniors on our marquee are the Sophomores, and they will be featured in this act. Spring for the City of Byrd has the same significance that it has to Nature; it is a promise of things to come.

SPRING

SPRING FEVER

Bobby Deputy, Adelaide McClanahan, Jimmy Hartwell, Milton Trichel, Richard Phillips, Tommy Hogan, Stephen Caine, Johnny Dishman, Charles Hudson, Ken Lacy, and Stephen Murdoch, National Merit Scholarship program semi-finalists, look over the scholarship catalogues. Adelaide McClanahan and Stephen Caine were also among the chosen finalists.

Spring comes like a shot in the arm, and the heart of Byrd continues to beat, yet with a new type of excitement. Each student steps out into an almost entirely different world, one in which classes have more interest and everyday cares are less of a burden. Just as everything seems to be going fine that old familiar disease, spring fever, creeps into the city. With the appearance of this disease the will to work seems to leave each student for a few weeks.

Twice monthly on Tuesdays an activity period is set aside for an R.O.T.C. parade. As the color guard passes before the special staff, all officers and sponsors salute the flag of their country.

Early one Friday morning the Gusher staff went to Dallas to visit the Taylor Publishing Company where our yearbook is printed. After a tour of the company, the staff spent some time in the yearbook library looking for new ideas.

Each Wednesday the students of Byrd have the opportunity of depositing their savings through the school banking program. Teller Beth McCallie takes the money from Elise Frankel, Cissy Bowker, Sue Brown, and Ann Carter.

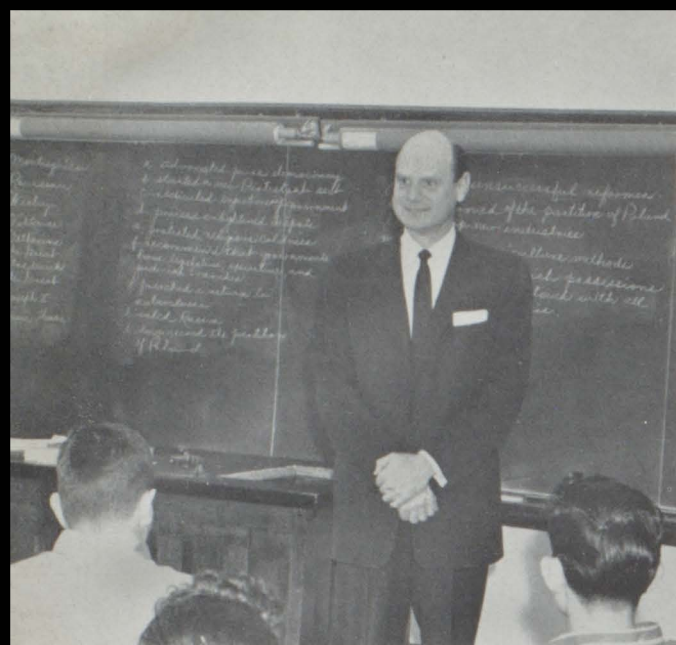

Many of the students at Byrd take advantage of the art classes which are offered. Barbara Bagwell, Sue Noland, and Wayne Netherland prove their talent by sketching various subjects.

The Byrd choir presented the operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance." Sarah Turnley helps Martha Williams with her make-up while Fredda Gaye and Marlene Hagedorn observe.

Suddenly, overnight it seems, school elections hit hard . . . Cheerleaders, Student Council, Pelican State. The city is filled with posters, outstretched hands, and friendly faces. Then, the day for the Juniors arrives . . . the day they receive their senior rings. Sunburned faces appear after each track meet or baseball game. Gushers have barely been signed when exams once again appear. Senior Class Day, Baccalaureate exercises, Graduation day . . . all take their places as memories.

Every two years Byrd has a Career Day. On this designated day men and women from the business world come and talk to the students about their vocations. One of the sixty speakers, Dr. D. L. Dykes, pastor of the First Methodist Church, speaks to a group of students on the duties of a minister.

Each spring the election of Student Council officers for the following year causes poster-covered walls and much excitement. Jack Jeter casts his ballot in the designated place.

Linda Lyles, Sunny Campbell, and Johnny Davis prove mechanical drawing can be fun as well as interesting.

The big day for the juniors finally arrives . . . the day they receive their senior rings. This year the chosen color for the stone was blue.

As he waits for his diploma, the senior suddenly realizes that it is all over. In a flash the many memories of his high school life and the part he played in the City of Byrd as a Byrdite pass through his mind. Yet at the same time these memories become hazy, and bright visions of the future appear. He looks to that future well prepared to meet his challenge, but, as on that first day, the same question still confronts him: "What lies ahead?"

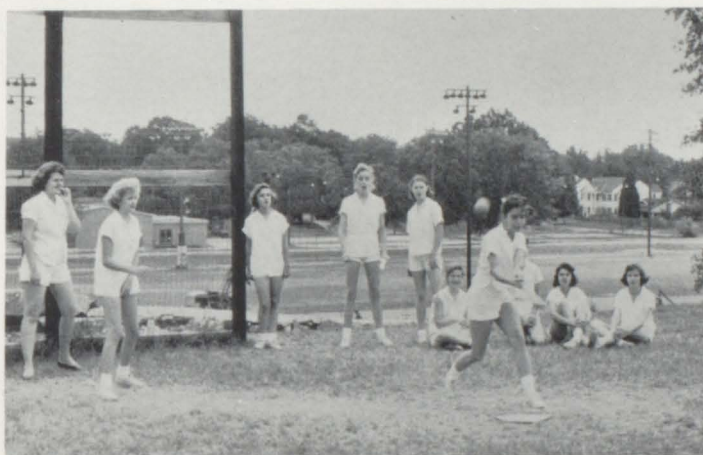

Near the last of the school year, the biology students begin drawing their projects to a close. Lester Senter reports on her project to the class with the help of her visual aids.

Every senior must be measured for his cap and gown. Betsy Chandler measures Dannie Lohman's head size while others await their turn.

Since Byrd believes in bettering the individual, both mentally and physically, this gym class takes their exercise in the form of a baseball game.

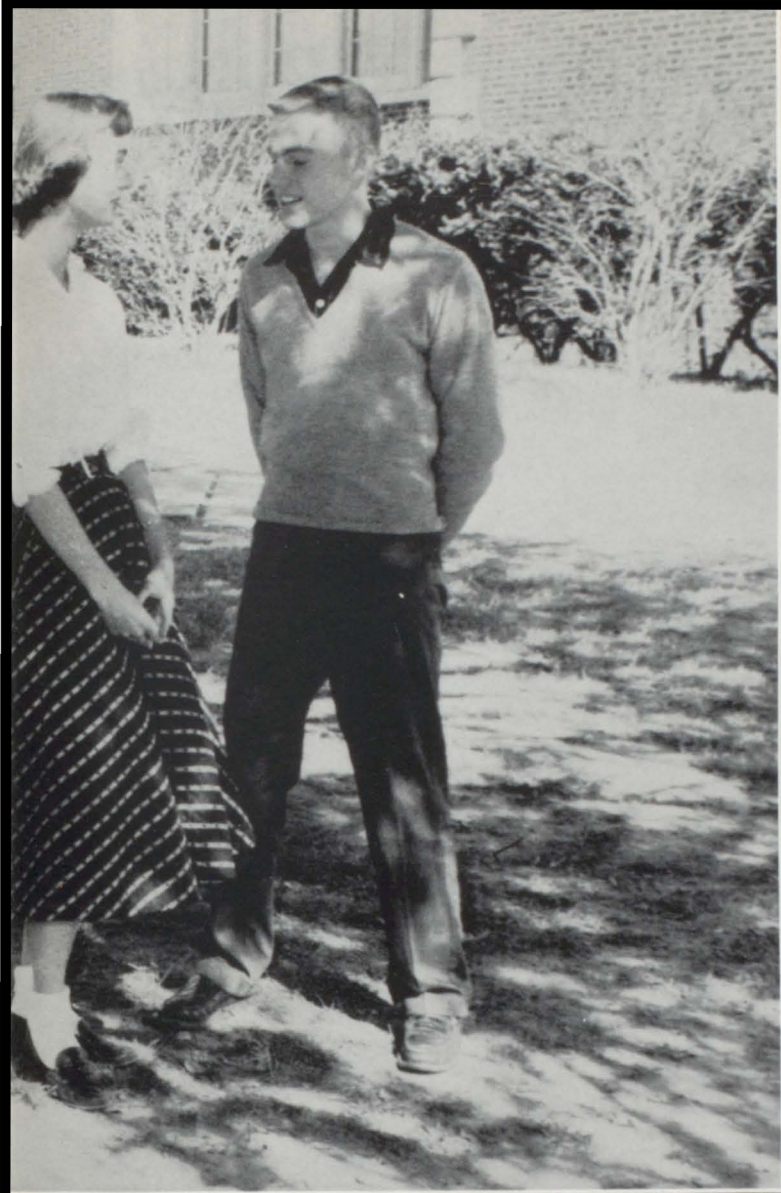

Table manners are very important to everyone. Therefore, this home living class learns the proper place setting for the dinner table.

HONORS

In the spring of the year, you anxiously await the naming of the National Honor Society members . . . you wonder what students will represent you at Pelican State . . . the National Forensic League attends their championship meets . . . at the Quill and Scroll assembly you honor the new members . . . the new Chapel leader is announced . . . members of the First Chair of America receive their band awards . . . and when the GUSHER arrives, the workers behind the scenes are finally recognized.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY HONORS

"Honor is not a matter of any man's calling merely, but rather of his own actions in it." Believing this statement true, the Grover C. Koffman Chapter of the National Honor Society seeks to honor those citizens of Byrd who have given of their time and effort for the betterment of the school.

To be eligible for membership in this society, a student must live up to the four cardinal principles of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. After considering these qualities in their students, the faculty selects the new members of the organization from the upper third of the Senior class and from those Juniors who have maintained a "B" average.

Assuming the responsibility that goes with honor, the National Honor Society has endeavored to render service to its school through various projects; such as reminding the student body of scholastic requirements, providing music in the cafeteria, and presenting an annual recognition day honoring those rendering service to the school. As a climax to these activities, an impressive induction ceremony for incoming members is held in the spring.

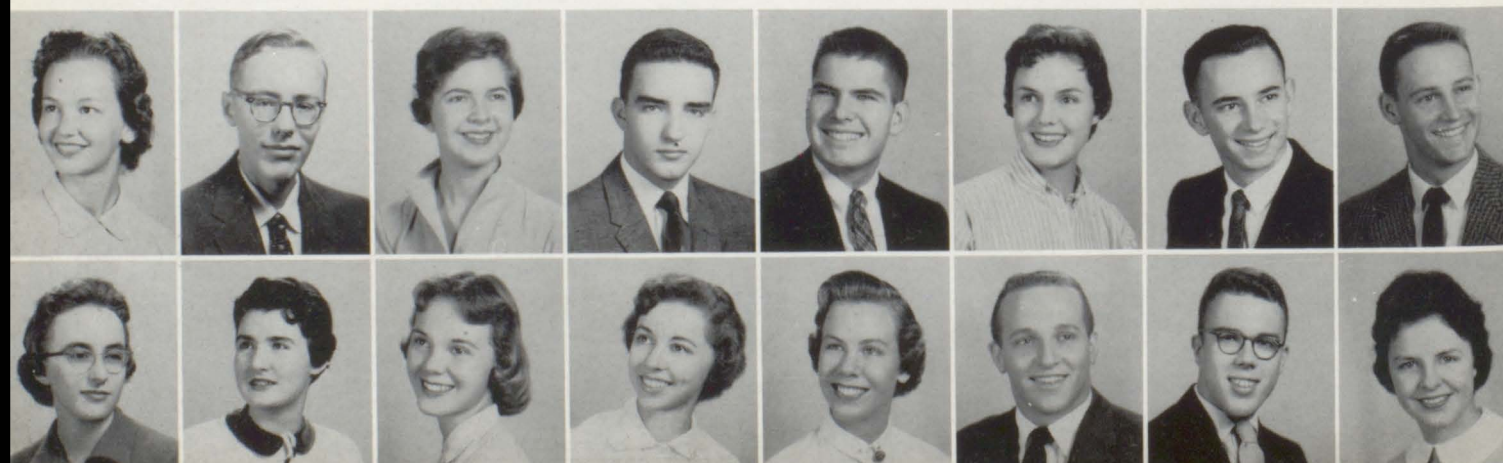

One of the duties of the Character group is making posters for the bulletin boards in the halls advising the students against possible mistakes. Ann Johnson, Gaye Carroll, Merritt Chastain, and Adelaide McClanahan put the signs on the bulletin boards around the school.

Sara Hitchcock, Jimmy Hartwell, Elizabeth Rasmussen, Mary Small, Stephen Caine, and Patsy Stamps make plans for the Recognition Day which is held in the spring of the year.

First row: Barbara Boggs, Stephen Caine, Gaye Carroll, Merritt Chastain, Grantham Couch, Julie Courtney, Bobby Deputy, Danny Deupree.

Second row: Marie Faricloth, Marion Fortson, Sanda Grage, Lynne Grant, Diane Griffin, Bobby Hamm, Jimmy Hartwell, Jan Heard.

STUDENTS FOR ACHIEVEMENTS

Right:

Much time is spent in preparing the recognition cards for each student that is recognized for rendering service to the school. Marie Faircloth, Lynne Grant, Sanda Grage, Marion Fortson, and Patricia Maguire fill in the names on the cards.

Below:

During the Louisiana State Teachers' Convention which was held at Byrd this year, members of the National Honor Society worked in shifts at the information desk. Murray Johnston, Elizabeth Rasmussen, and Charles Peatross direct a teacher to the registration desk.

Above:

During one of the meetings of the National Honor Society, Miss Norsworthy talked to the members about the various scholarships which are available. One of the duties of the members of this honor society is to impress upon the underclassmen the importance of a good scholastic average.

First row: Sara Hitchcock, Tommy Hogan, Jim Jeter, Ann Johnson, Murray Johnston, Adelaide McClanahan, Patricia Maguire, Charles Peatross.

ONE PER CENT OF BYRD IS IN

Preparing to leave for another debate trip are Robert Carr and Sally Hinsch. The debate team makes approximately fifteen trips each year.

Adding more awards to the already large collection are these N.F.L. members, Loraine Rowe, Ann Lindsey, and Martha Gillispie.

Twenty-five points are the requirements for membership in the National Forensic League. These points may be earned in humorous declamation, dramatic interpretation, original oratory, and declamation. Byrd won the leading chapter plaque in 1945 and again in 1952. Competing against the best teams in the nation, Byrd has won many honors. Many first places were won by Byrd students besides their placing second in sweepstakes at several tournaments.

Many medals in humorous, dramatic, poetry reading, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking were won at Northwestern State College. The debate teams are also very active. This year the senior men's team placed third at a tournament held in Houston, Texas. There were many finalists in the national tournament at Muskogee, Oklahoma. Mr. Rogers replaced Mr. Bacilla as faculty sponsor for the club.

Gathering information for a debate is perhaps the hardest job as these members of the debate team, Alan Ruben, Robert Neff, Nancy Waddell, and Wayne Winterrowd realize.

THE NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

First row: Louella Bains, Rick Biggs, Robert Carr, Gaye Carroll, Julie Courtney, Ginger Darnell, Martha Gillispie.
Second row: Barbara Jo Griffin, Gayle Griffith, Linda Hanna, Sally Hinsch, Paulette James, Jerry Mashaw, Tom Parker.
Third row: Sandra Querbes, Jackie Reed, Loraine Rowe, Becky Schergens, Marcia Simmons, Lotty Spitzer, Mary Martin Wallace.
Fourth row: Carl Weisman, Rosemarie Wimer, Wayne Winterrowd.

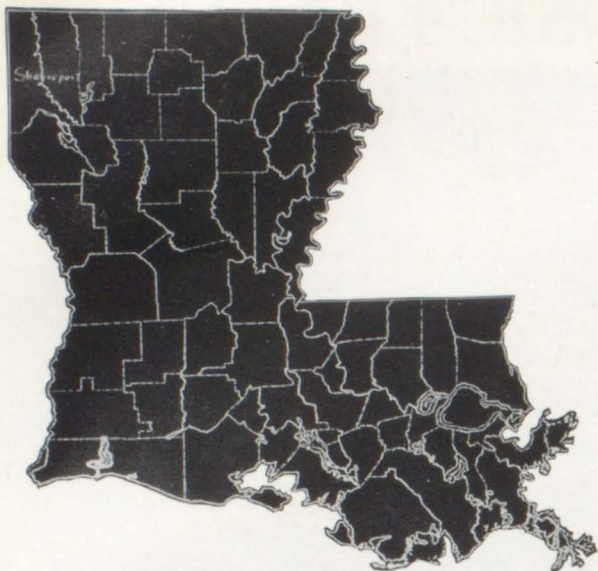

Practicing before a debate trip can prove very interesting. Robert Neff is getting the desired reaction from his audience to his humorous declamation.

During the month of August, a mythical 49th state was formed by delegates from high schools throughout the state. These students were elected by the Junior class for their outstanding qualities . . . those of character, leadership, cooperation, and scholarship. Each representative was sponsored by one of Shreveport's leading civic organizations. They followed a program planned by the American Legion designed to educate our youth in the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities of an American citizen.

the freedoms given them by the Constitution of the United States of America and the democratic way of life. They are taught the duties of real office holders in the everyday world and are actually given a chance to perform these duties.

Our representatives to Pelican State came home with many honors. Bobby Hamm was elected lieutenant-governor, Grant-ham Couch was elected attorney general, and Johnny Dish-man was honored with the title "outstanding citizen." The girls were at a disadvantage because Girls' State was closed after 4 days due to an epidemic of Asian flu.

For each delegate to Pelican State an alternate was elected. Each alternate was assigned a number and would have attended the mythical state in the absence of the delegate with the corresponding number. Their election was based on the same principles as the delegates; they, too, were elected by the faculty and Junior class for their outstanding qualities of leadership, character, cooperation, and scholarship. Therefore, to be elected as a delegate or an alternate is a great honor.

First row: Adelaide McClanahan, Ann Johnson, Betty Cupples.
Second row: James Burroughs, Dick Drummond, Vic Barnett, Robert Neff.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Organized at Byrd since 1947, the Quill and Scroll is one of the most honored organizations in the school. The requirements for membership are the following: a "B" average, a junior or senior classification, fifty or more inches of printed material in three consecutive issues of the High Life or ninety hours work on the Gusher, and membership on a publications staff.

An impressive initiation, followed by an informal banquet, is held for the new members each year. Miss Margee Sanders and Miss Louise Harris are the sponsors of this honorary society.

First row: Patricia Bateman, Barbara Boggs, Naomi Colbert, Julie Courtney, Betty Kaye Floyd, Diane Griffin.
Second row: James Hartwell, Thomas Hogan, James Jeter, Ann Johnson, James Lewis, Ann Lindsey.
Third row: Patricia Maguire, Harold Mitchell, Ann Moreneaux, James Neely, Charles Peatross, Fred Peters.
Fourth row: Elizabeth Rasmussen, Becky Schergens, Patsy Stamps.
Fifth row: Claudia Sturges, Becky Thagard, David Tyrrell.

Sarah Turnley, Sandra McGarrie, James Burroughs, and Benny Harris, newly elected members, sign the traditional scroll of the society.

BRASS AND PERCUSSION

Seated: Billy Hamelback, Paul Wilson, Louise Taylor, Diane Simmons, Dorothy Patterson, Mary Ruth Dumas.

Standing: Charles Adams, Douglas Fisher, Richard Tubbs, Thomas Hargis, Larry Beadles, Roger Fox, Freddie Peters, Kenneth Gates.

FIRST CHAIR OF AMERICA

Selected from the band members by a series of tryouts and auditions are the members of the Honor Band. Those selected, about twenty, must maintain the highest standards and have a thorough knowledge of their instruments. Members in this band attend classes annually, and many receive valuable scholarships to colleges, both in the state and in the nation. Pictures of both the Honor Band and Band Council appear in the national band yearbook, First Chair of America, each year. Mr. Benner, the band director, sponsors the Honor Band.

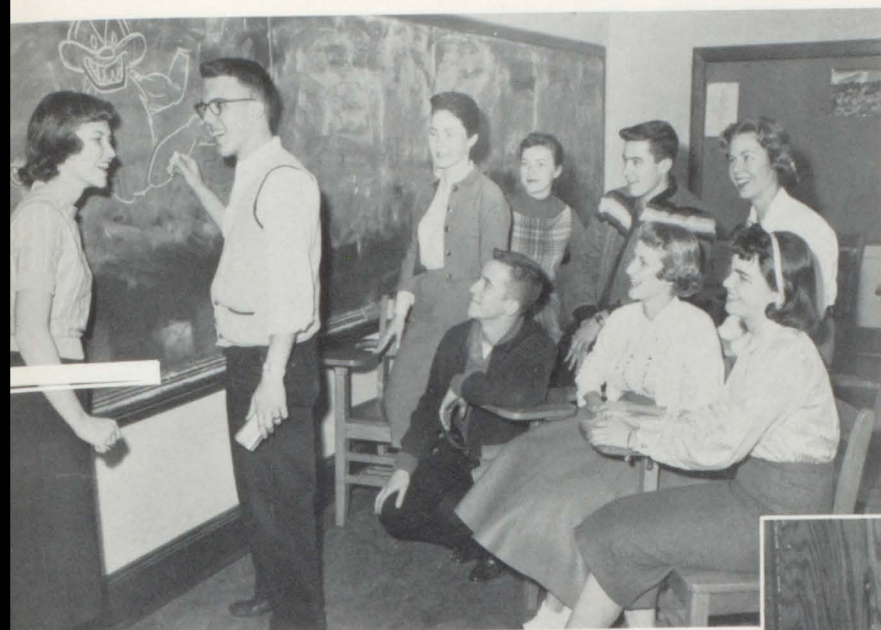

WOODWINDS

Seated: Stephen Murdoch, Dennis Harrington, Barbara Hogg, Helen Kramers, Gay Watson, Ranita Blake, Jo Ann Raley, Norma Gurden, Patricia Coddington.

Standing: Charles Bloxom, David Swearingen, Earl Stantage, Jimmie Payne, Charles Gautreaux, Tommy Richardson, Gordon Allen, Jimmy Owens, Bobby Brown.

MANY WORK BEHIND THE SCENES

Below: Iva May Sullivan, Carol Van Hoose, and Mary Ann Friday spend much of their time helping Mr. Dehner with locker problems.

Drawing posters for assembly is a big job. Patsy Stamps, Jimmy Hartwell, Nancy Evans, Margaret Rosbottom, Dickie Flowers, Diane Griffin, and, seated: Steve Lindley, Jane Cunningham, and Marilyn Serra seem to enjoy doing it.

These office workers help to keep the school running smoothly.

First row: Glenda Hufstetler, Joyce Hamrick, Sheila Juneau, Kay Karcher, Lenore Rifkin, Jere Craig.

Second row: Suzanne King, Arline Elton, Bonnie Broome, Wanda Rose, Holly Metcalf, Jean Hollowell.

Third row: Bonnie Daniels, Mary Holden, Jane Jones, Suzanne Scarborough, Sue Stephenson, Jane Sims.

Students give up their study halls to work at the courtesy desk. They are ready to be of service to anyone needing help.

Seated: Judy MacAdams, Alice Richard, Mildred Bahm, Marjorie MacFarland.

Standing: Martha Jones, Mary Lou Kennedy, Dora Jeffcoat, Dorothy Carlson, Martha Purifoy, Ann Carter.

THEY TAKE PART IN MANY

Each week the backstage crew helps with the production of assembly. They are Martha Hayes, David Greer, John Lakey, Jimmy Wingfield, Joe Young, Gary Montgomery, and Dick Drummond.

These office workers help with the many services that the office does for the school.

Below: In charge of the chapel workers are Brenda Amacker, Betty Moffett and Linda Lawrence, group chairmen, and Sandra Poss and Rick Biggs, publicity chairmen.

PHASES OF SCHOOL LIFE

Working on the parking lot, William Green and Bill Trusty save students a great deal of confusion.

Without school store workers, Byrd students would be greatly inconvenienced. They are: Robert Neff, Vic Barnett, Emma Broadnax, Greer Lawson, Jane Cunningham, Sallie Brockschmidt, Janice Baker, Paula Shapiro, Gay Grabill, James Rowland, Lee Kittrell, and Sonny Brown.

Lost something? These girls will be glad to help you find it. First row: Annette Nail, Mary Lou Chandler, Sammie Long, Sally Jernigan. Second row: Mary Marsh, Gloria Herderson, Alice Lee Daughenbaugh, Thersa Conlan.

Cafeteria workers render a great service unrecognized by the school.

First row: Patsy Coleman, Sue Branch, Shirley Coleman, Patsy Patterson, Nona Anderson. Second row: Sarah Parker, Agnes Lafitte, Eva Wood, Patricia Ann Johnson, Sharon Gross, Paul Sandlin. Third row: John Davis, George Tedford, Leland Guise, Kenneth Luker, Johnny Parsons.

CHAPEL, PRAYER GROUPS, YOUTH WEEK, CHARITY,

THE HEART

Byrd High School, under the Foster Parents Plan, is the Foster Parent of three orphans, two from Korea and one Polish refugee from Germany.

The Polish orphan is Eva Malkiewicz. Although Eva is Polish, she lives and attends school in Munich, Germany. She is in the seventh grade at elementary school and is five feet, two and one half inches tall and weights 108 pounds. Eva's health is good, and she is the best student in her grade. She has a talent for music and plays the violin.

The Korean orphans are Kim Hak Soo and Shin Jong Ja. Kim Hak Soo is twelve years old and is in the sixth grade. He is a healthy, normal active boy and is above average in his school work. He enjoys playing football and baseball and has a hobby of making bird cages and trays out of wood in his spare time. Shin Jong Ja is a sixteen year old girl and is in the ninth grade at the Junior High School in her town. She is a model student and is especially good in English. Jong Ja also teaches a class in her Sunday School.

Each month Byrd students contribute to our three orphans. Here we see the collection being made by Lorena Young and Virginia Millener.

OF BYRD

People usually think of Byrd as a city of sports, parties, studies, and fun. But it is seldom they think of the organizations that make Byrd such a wonderful institution; these make up the Heart of Byrd. The Heart operates on a city-wide scale doing the little things for which the workers receive no credit but without which the City of Byrd would not be what it is. One part of the Heart is our Prayer Groups. The Prayer Groups meet once a week to strengthen the religious beliefs of the members and to perform many other charitable deeds. Gathering food and clothing and distributing it throughout the city to the needy is one main activity. Within the Prayer Groups the students also enjoy a fellowship with one another in a relaxed atmosphere outside the limits of the school day.

Another part of the Heart is the Chapel service. Each Wednesday morning, students gather in the auditorium for the short service which includes a song, a prayer, and a devotional given by a student. More than often the service lightens the burdens of students for the rest of the week, enabling them to bear their tasks more easily.

Another of the most important parts of the Heart is Youth Week. Youth Week is held each year under the planning of representatives from Byrd, Fair Park, and Bossier, and is completely carried out by our youth. The purpose of Youth Week is to promote Christian living among the young people of the city. In addition to this, the project also promotes a closer relationship among the students of all the schools of the city. These activities of the Heart are entirely carried out by students without the help or advice of adults.

The workers of the Heart, who so diligently give their time without renown, are one of the main reasons the City of Byrd runs on such a wonderful, happy scale.

The chairmen of the transportation committee for Youth Week, Hartie Spence, Bob Deputy, and James Rowland, are hard at work on their lists.

Below: It is customary to close the Prayer Group meetings with the friendship circle and sentence prayers.

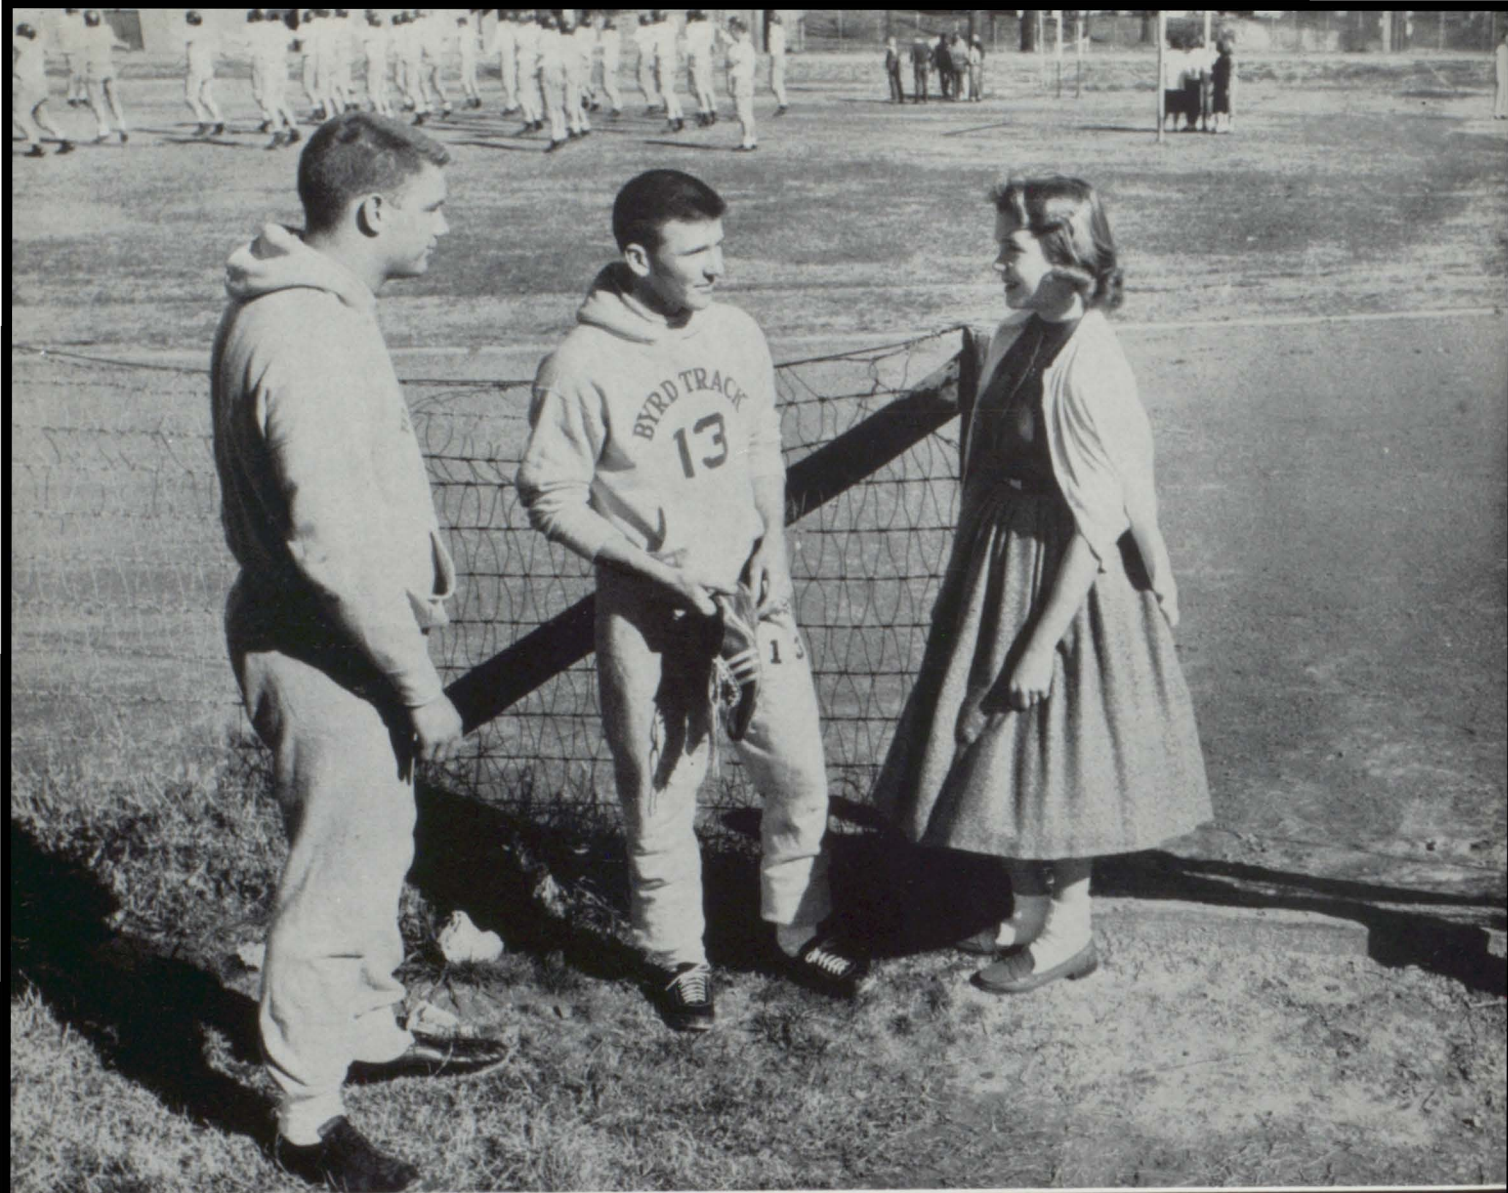

Below: We see a group leaving for the Youth Week service. Byrd was represented in 1958 by Johnny Dishman and Grantham Couch as speakers.

A group of Byrd students are seen entering the auditorium early Wednesday morning for the Chapel service.

PAUSING AT THE GATE LEADING TO THE TRACK, these seniors discuss the coming Tri-State Meet at which Byrd is the defending champion. Discussing Yellow Jacket possibilities are: Hartie Spence, track team; Bobby Lyle, track team; Martha Hayes, pep squad member; Lottye Spitzer, R.O.T.C. major; James Burroughs, GUSHER staff.

SPORTS

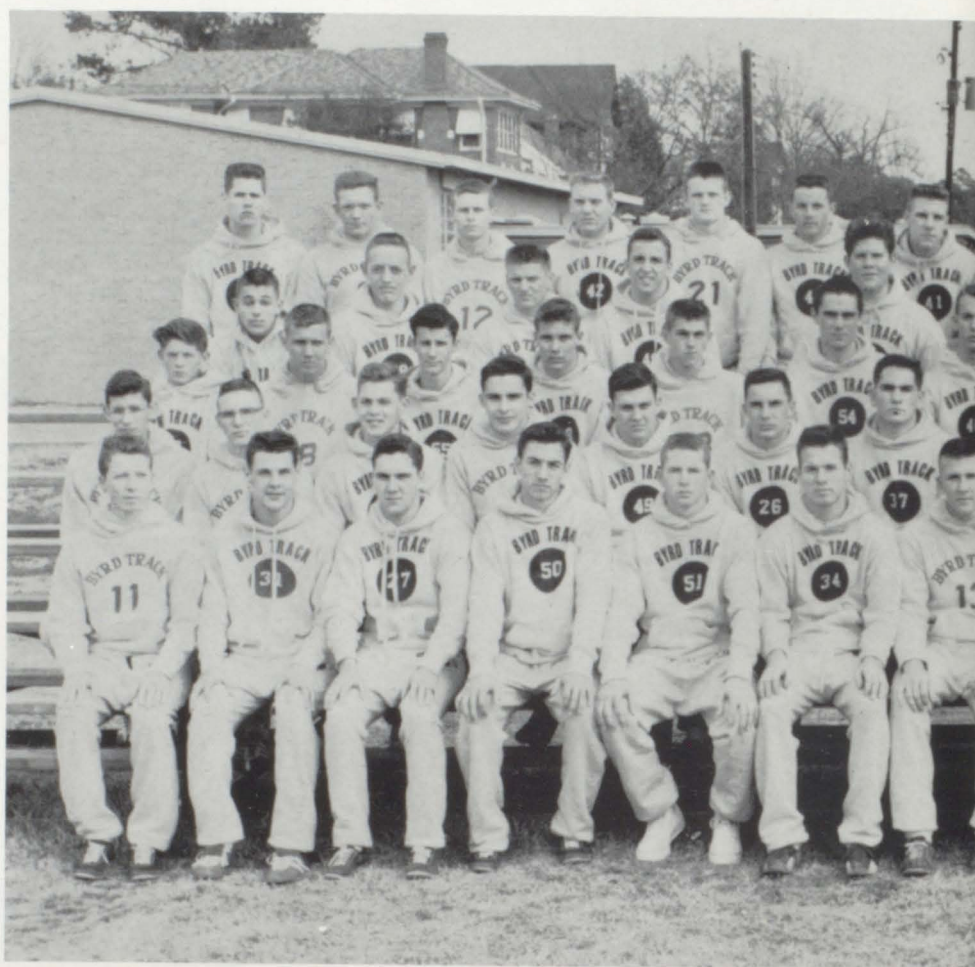

In the fall of the year:

You are issued your track equipment for the new season . . . you start slowly getting into shape trying to avoid pulling a muscle . . . you hope to be able to run a good quarter the first time you are timed . . . as the first track meet draws near, your time begins to drop, and your distance in the shot and discus begins to get longer . . . during the meets you wonder whether you could have worked harder during the week . . . you know that if you win the mile relay, your team will win . . . when your team wins the meet, you feel satisfaction in knowing that the extra effort helped to make this possible.

Fifth row: Russell Webster, Donnie Brand, Jackie Nichols, Vaughn Evers, Robert Shemwell, Bob Brown, Charles Peatross, Gene Jones, Homer Blane, Hartie Spence, Tucker Ingersoll, Jon Harper, Johnny Hutches.

The 1957 track season brought to Byrd the first defeat for State AAA championship in four years. Byrd's 1957 track team won six out of its nine meets and was leading when one meet was canceled. The Byrd squad placed six boys on the 1957 All-State team, three of which are returning as juniors on the 1958 Yellow Jacket squad. An annual event for Byrd is to be host to the Tri-State meet at which teams from Texas, Arkansas, and Louisiana are invited. All the competition is not limited to the varsity alone. There are many interesting meets arranged for the freshmen and sophomores. With the help of a very talented club and under the constant coaching and leadership of Coach Turner, the 1958 cindermen are looking forward to regaining their position as number one in the state.

1958 CAPTAINS: George Tedford, Charles Peatross, Bo Campbell.

Senior girls participate in calisthenics so they can keep their bodies trim.

AN INTEREST IN MANY SPORTS

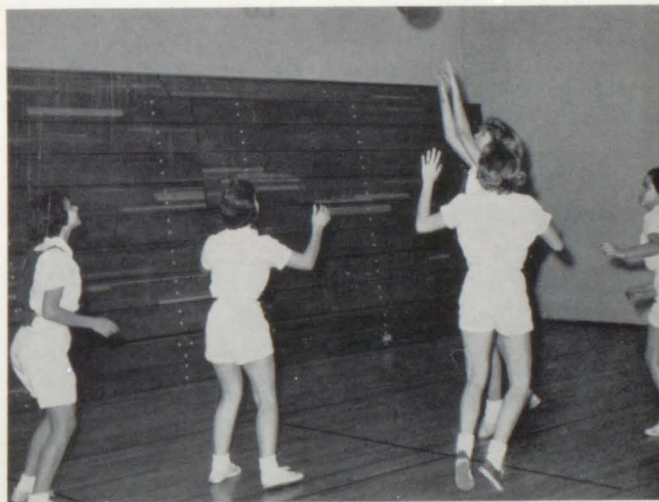

The freshman girls enjoyed taking dancing, which helped to increase their charm and grace.

Girls not only played soft ball, but they also learned rules and took written tests on them.

An enthusiastic game of volleyball was enjoyed by senior girls

These girls hold their breath waiting to see whether another goal will be scored by their teammate.

LEAVING SCHOOL AFTER WORKING WITH THEIR VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS are these seniors: Bobby Hamm, Student Council; Robert Davis, Varsity Club; Bobby Deputy, Red Cross; John Sims, Gayarre History Club; Martha Frierson, Officers' and Sponsors' Club.

ORGANIZATIONS

In the spring of the year:

. . . Your Student Council holds its annual talent show . . . Red Cross officers are elected . . . your Boys' and Girls' Debate Clubs have their banquets . . . many of you in the Science Club enter your projects in the Science Fair . . . you, the members, of the Upper and Lower Latin Forum, work hard on the housing committee for the National Junior Classical League convention here this year . . . members of the Future Teachers of America look back on the work they did when the State Teachers Convention met at Byrd . . . the Library Club catalogues the new books that have come in . . . Y-Teens receive a modeling course from John Robert Powers . . . the members of the Creative Writing Club write for Scriptus, their annual publication . . . you, the members of the 4-H Club, turn in your projects . . . all organizations are busy making the City of Byrd better.

WE WORKED FOR BYRD

Below: Representing Byrd at the Baton Rouge Leadership Conference in the fields of journalism, speech, library work, and recreation are the following students: Seated: Sally Clingman, Naomi Colbert, Claudia Struges, Etna Scribner, Lynn Grant, and Carolyn Giles. Standing are: Jimmy Hartwell, Ann Lindsey, Martha Ann Thigpen, Lise Thompson, Julie Rees, Gaye Carroll, Sandy Trust, and Jim Jeter. They discussed ways of improving the school with students from all over the state.

Sitting: Bubby Rasberry, Kayla Rosenberg. Standing: Johnny Dishman, Gaye Carroll, and Randy Jack. These Student Council officers and committee chairmen attended the Student Council Workshop at Northwestern State College in Natchitoches this summer. This workshop is for the purpose of training the future officers in leadership.

First and second vice presidents, Ben Carter and Evie Winder, of the Red Cross went to Gulf Park College in Gulfport, Mississippi, for the Red Cross Workshop. These representatives learned about Red Cross work and leadership. The purpose of this trip was to bring ideas home to Byrd.

Ann Johnson and Adelaide McClanahan, Co-Editors of the High Life, spent five weeks in National High School Institute in Evanston, Illinois. They were trained in newspaper work by the lectures, classes and field trips. Barbara Boggs, Patsy Stamps, and Johnny Edgar, also of the High Life, went to the Southern School Press Institute in Florida. They spent two weeks attending classes learning about newspaper work.

DURING THE SUMMER

The Pep Squad spent many long hours practicing drills this summer in order to be their very best on the big night. They learned many hand motions to add color to the cheers. The mighty Squad received their uniforms during the summer and are seen here wearing them proudly at the last practice before the first football game. Although many complaints were heard during those long, hot hours of marching, the members realized that it was worth every minute to know Byrd was proud of them.

While attending the annual R.O.T.C. camp held at Fort Polk, the boys from Byrd and Fair Park learn how to use weapons. During their two weeks stay they live and undergo typical army life. Here Dennis Herrington is seen cleaning his rifle.

First row: Ronnie Gardner, Lou Johnson, Milly Joffrion, Polly Bernal, Miles Turner. Second row: Milton McClure, Bob Tobey, Larry Beadles, Arnold Parish, and Dale Coleman.

These 4-H members won a trip to Baton Rouge in the State Short Course. They stayed for one week on the L.S.U. campus. These students represented Byrd in such fields as gardening, health, good grooming, and baking. Dale Coleman and Helen Stutts won honors in the L.S.U. Spring Livestock Show.

Comparing notes on their respective conferences are these senior boys, Alan Ruben and Stephen Caine. Alan attended the Baylor Speech Institute at Baylor University for five weeks. The purpose of the Institute was to improve his ability as a debater with instructions from coaches. He and his colleague won second place in this debate tournament. Stephen attended the National High School Institute in Evanston, Illinois, for five weeks this summer. He went to conferences with the professors on the Engineering and Science Courses.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

On the belief that the best training for citizenship is a democracy within a democracy, the Byrd High School Student Council was organized in the fall of 1940. The council has achieved, through years of progress, a distinguished position in our school by its keen interest in student participation and administration of school improvements.

Not only has the Council grown in purpose, but it has grown in numbers. It now consists of an executive committee composed of the six elected officers and the eleven appointed committee chairmen plus ninety-one representatives, and approximately fifty committee members. In carrying out its primary goal of promoting better citizenship, the Council provides a medium through which student opinion may be heard and problems of the school discussed and acted upon. Meanwhile, the nine committees satisfy the individual needs of our school by furnishing important services such as the administration of the parking lot and sales of merchandise in the school store. Thus the Student Council is ever-functioning to serve the students and the school.

A growing Council is an active Council as is proved by the many activities of this organization. Major projects of the Council include Leadership Training Day, Youth Week, Christmas card sale, Annual Talent Show, and Teens Against Polio. By sending delegates to such conventions as the SASC in Arlington, Virginia, LASC in Alexandria, Louisiana, Byrd has maintained its position as an active leader among high schools.

The sponsor of the Council is Miss Neva Norsworthy.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

Second row: Paul Born, Bill Bush, Dan Andrea.

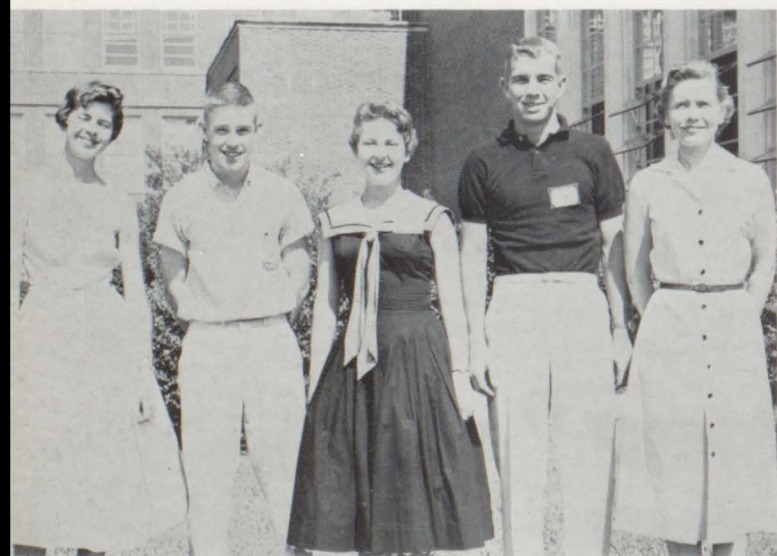

An important project of the Student Council is the school store. The store carries all school supplies needed by the student.

Lottie Spitzer listens as Sylvia Chambless tries out for the annual Student Council Talent Show.

UNDER OUR STUDENT ORGANIZATION,

In August the Student Council sent some of its officers to the State Workshop at Northwestern State College in Natchitoches. For one week these officers were trained in the duties of their office. Gaye Carroll, Johnny Dishman, Kayla Rosenberg, Bubby Rasberry, and Miss Norsworthy, the Student Council Sponsor, are pictured in front of the Youth Building at N.C.S.

The parking lot is under the supervision of the Student Council. Paul Nelson, head of the parking lot committee, helps students park their cars so that there will be plenty of room in the lot for others.

Each year the Student Council sponsors a Christmas card sale. Annette Nail, Kenny Gibson, and Mary Murphree look over the selection on display.

"After the game" dances sponsored by the Student Council always were very successful. Sandy Trust and Vic Barnett buy their tickets from Mr. Ravenna. The faculty helped the Student Council by chaperoning each dance.

DEMOCRACY IS AT WORK

Below: Chris's Combo played for the "Before school" dance. Hot chocolate and donuts were served to add to the enjoyment of all.

For the first time the Student Council sponsored a "Basketball Week." During the week the team was honored over the radio, as well as by posters in the hall. On Thursday, March 20, 1958, the Council gave a dance before school. The sockhop in the gym was a great success and was a joyous climax to a week of fun.

RED CROSS MEMBERS

Starting the year off with a bang, the Red Cross holds its annual banquet in September. Then, getting down to work, it starts the year with its main project, the publication of the Student Directory and the Teachers' Directory, accomplished this year in spite of complications caused by the Asiatic flu. The enrollment drive this year resulted in 1200 Junior Red Cross members.

In workshop every Tuesday, members plan and execute such projects as the annual drive to fill gift boxes for children overseas, decorations for various hospitals when the occasion arises, and other special projects during the year.

The following are chairmen of J.R.C. committees: Tom Parker, speaker; Kay Brown, volunteer; Joyce Mikeska, social service; Suzanne Greenwald, First Aid room; Nancy Evans, art. Seated: Ray Hubener, Student Council representative; Steve Lindley, manual arts.

Representatives Mary Alice Foster and Sandra Rountree, typing chairman Patricia McGuire, and hospitality chairman Martha Kennedy are helping in workshop.

BOYS' DEBATE CLUB

The Boys' Debate Club was organized for those boys who wished to develop good speaking habits. The business meetings, in which strict parliamentary procedure is followed, are held before a program which is given by a few of the club members. These programs consist of debates, reports, and speeches on topics of interest. The annual election of the next year's officers is held at the end of the year at the banquet, where the awards for the most outstanding member and best speaker are presented. Mr. Ed Bacilla was the Boys' Debate sponsor until he left school in February, and then Mr. Jimmy Rogers became the sponsor.

SCIENCE CLUB

To stimulate interest in science among young people is the main purpose of the Science Club. Each member must have a C average in all science and math courses and a C average in all other subjects, as well as a genuine interest in science.

The 1957-58 Science Club, under the leadership of Mr. Larmoyeux, is in its second year at Byrd under the present constitution.

The Science Club is proud of and takes credit for many of the accomplishments of its members. Stephen Caine received honorable mention at the National Science Fair in Los Angeles in the spring of 1957. Because Stephen Caine was a national winner, he attended Northwestern University for a six weeks advanced science course during the summer of 1957. In the Westinghouse Science Search, finalists were Reed Armstrong, Richard Phillips, and Stephen Caine. Science Club members Stephen Caine and Richard Phillips were finalists in the National Merit Scholarship program.

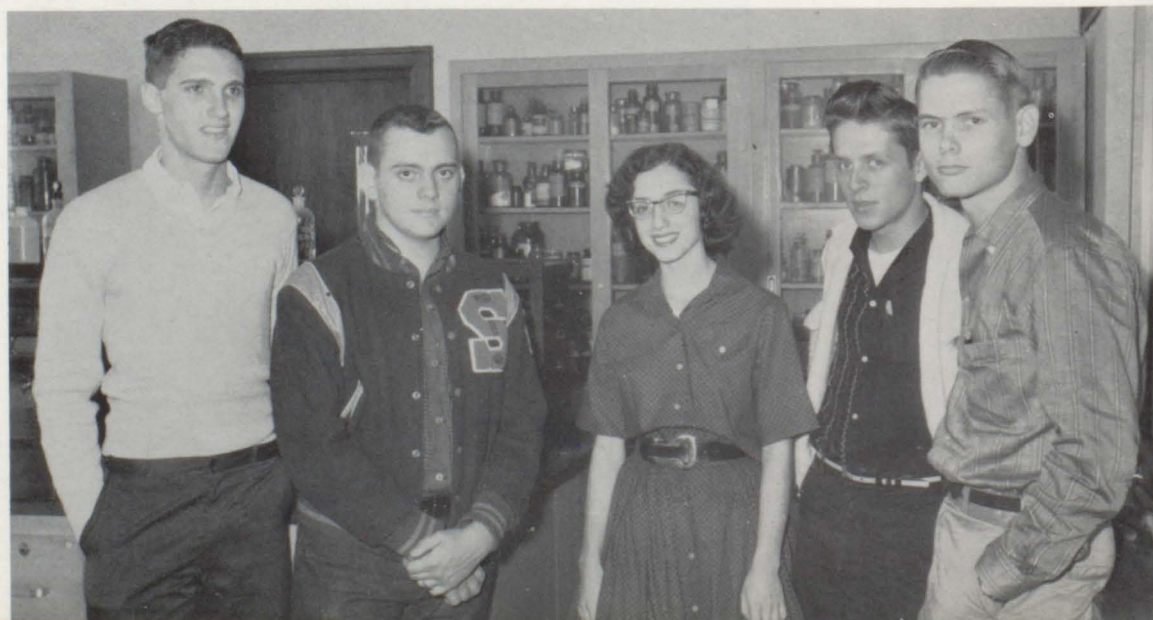

Club activities include science projects, Science Fairs, television programs, and other interesting projects.

These students of such a scientific interest will be our scientists of tomorrow.

UPPER LATIN FORUM

The Upper Latin Forum of Byrd, which is as old as the school itself, is now a member of the Junior Classical League, a national organization composed of Latin clubs. The League has approximately 1000 chapters and a membership exceeding 35,000. Each year the J.C.L. has a national convention. Last summer for the first time Byrd was represented at such a meeting. Miss Robinson and seven Latin students attended the convention which was held in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Here they obtained much information to further the work of our club.

The Latin Forum, which meets the first Wednesday of each month, has 130 members. The members must be second or third year Latin students or people, who, while not studying the subject now, have had at least two years of Latin. The purpose of the Latin Forum is to learn more about the life and customs of the ancient Romans.

On the twenty-first and twenty-second of March, a state-wide convention was held here, attended by 350 students from various clubs all over the state. They were overnight guests in the homes of the local members and were treated to a "toga hop" to top off the rest of the evening meeting.

The activities of the Upper Forum were concluded with an annual banquet in May.

The following are officers: Stephen Richardson, Consul; Marian Fortson, Consul; Bucky Ogilvie, Tribuni; John Thurmond, Tribuni; Lyndra Pate, Quaestor; Judy McClenaghan, Scriba; Clowe Wright, Scriba.

The members of the Forum who attended the National J.C.L. convention this summer at Denver, put on a skit for the rest of the club at a November meeting.

First row: Jo Ann Stewart, Sally Overdyke, Carolyn Pratt, Judy Richards, Charlotte Jones, Ginger Grady, Mary Easterwood, Kathy Adcock.

Second row: Mary Davis, Polly Waits, Judith Miller, Ramona Whidden, Carolyn Hill, Marion Donovan, Marian Meador.

Third row: Denny Brown, Charles Guatreux, Bill McCaa, Evie Winder, Maribeth Moore, Pat Lomax, Patty Bruening, Martha Moseley.

F.T.A. SHOW LEADERSHIP QUALITIES

The C. E. Byrd club of the Future Teachers of America received its charter from the National Education Association in March of 1948. Its purposes are to explore the opportunities in teaching as a career and to cultivate the qualities of personality, character and leadership which are essential in a good teacher. Miss Lurline Alison has served as faculty sponsor for this club for nine years.

Some of the activities of the club this year were: acting as pages at the Caddo Teachers Workshop, helping in the administration of the Iowa Educational Development Tests, paying tribute to our teachers on National Teacher Day, helping a needy family at Christmas time, presenting films related to teaching, giving a tea in celebration of Horace Mann's birthday, and attending the Future Teachers of America State Convention in Baton Rouge.

Wanda Allison and Mary Easterwood, members of the club, aid in registering the approximately 5,000 teachers who attended the Louisiana Teachers Convention which was held in Shreveport.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club, sponsored by Mrs. Hanks and Mrs. Daugherty, is made up of girls who work in the library. They meet twice a month to discuss library problems and ways to improve service in the library. The club is affiliated with the Louisiana Teenage Library Association that holds a convention each summer which is attended by some of the junior club members.

The main project of the club is recruiting girls who are interested in becoming librarians and training them in that field. They also send a Christmas tree to the Confederate Memorial Hospital each Christmas.

Officers are Martha Ann Thigpen, First Vice President; June Ducote, Second Vice President; Carolyn Giles, President; Betty Ratcliff, Parliamentarian; Eva Brumfield, Treasurer; Julie Rees, Secretary; Melinda Witty, Student Council Representative.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

Distributive Education is a vocational training program for students who work in retail, wholesale or service businesses, while in high school.

Club activities include the Annual Employer-Employee Banquet, state convention, national convention, Faculty-Businessmen's Coffee, viewing business films, visiting various businesses and industries, and hearing professional men and women speak to the club.

This spring, students attended the convention at Lake Charles, Louisiana. Members take part in contests such as public speaking, sales judging, gift wrapping, retail arithmetic.

The club is composed of students receiving training in a chosen field of business while in their junior and senior years of high school.

First row: Margaret Woodard, Jo Ann Griffin, Shirley Ann Hill, Elaine Brown, Shirley Ann Gabbs, Glenda K. Thompson, Betty Bunch, Patsy McNeil, Glynn Nell Magee, Mary Hicks.

Second row: Ward Flores, Dixie Austin, Georgia Mosher, Mozell Coleman, Glenda Stevens, Joyce Smith, Joyce Horn, Mary Wiggins, Ruby Drummond, Frank De Louche.

One of the social events of the year is a before-school coffee given for the faculty at Christmas time by the Distributive Education Club members.

ES

Based on the Roman plan of government, the Forum Latinum was organized in 1925. Later, because of increased enrollment, the club was divided into two groups, the upper and lower forums.

Meetings are held after school every other Wednesday. The business is carried on by the presiding officers who are elected at the beginning of the school year by popular vote of the members.

Y-TEENS BUILD A

Y-Teens are girls in junior and senior high school who are junior members of the Y.W.C.A. In Shreveport, girls meet in the schools or at the Y.W.C.A. for their club meetings.

They belong to a world wide fellowship of women and girls of every race, creed, color, and occupation in Y.W.C.A.'s fifty-eight countries.

Each is bound to the other by the Y.W.C.A. purpose and the Y-Teen goals.

Each shares in furthering these goals through participation in the democratic process.

New friends, new experiences, new opportunities are the rewards of Y-Teen membership.

Vice President GLORIA HENDERSON
President JANICE STURDIVENT

The Senior Y-Teen Club is made up of junior and senior girls. During the Sweetheart month of February, the Y.W.C.A. sponsored a Valentine Dance, and Patricia Lavigne from Byrd was a candidate for the Valentine Queen. Janice Sturdivant, president of this group, was elected Service Chairman of the Inter-Club Council, an organization of all the Y-Teen Clubs in the Parish. The Club's sponsor, Mrs. Martin, meets with these girls each Tuesday and helps them with their different activities which help prepare them for Christian living.

BETTER FUTURE

Because there are thoughts in a girl's mind deeper than laughter, because there are hidden yearnings in a girl's heart, because there is a desire in a girl's soul to know God and His goodness, our Y-Teen Clubs were formed. They were organized that girls might come together to discuss things important to each other, that they might learn how to spread among all girls the spirit of enthusiasm, service and friendship.

Y-Teens activities include the annual potato chip sale, recreation of the Y.W.C.A., and other religious and social activities.

Mrs. Richardson is the Sophomore-Freshman Y-Teen sponsor and with her help these girls will grow to be helpful, useful citizens.

Bonnie Daniels, Mildred Bahm, Jeannine Stout, and Sharon Norman fill a Christmas basket as one of their annual Y-Teen projects.

SOPHOMORE-FRESHMAN Y-TEENS

The purpose of Y-Teens is to build a fellowship of girls devoted to realizing those ideals of personal and social living to which they are committed by their Christian faith.

This purpose, translated into teenage language, sets these goals for Y-Teens:

To grow as a person

To grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, nationalities;

To grow in knowledge and love of God

These goals and the Y.W.C.A. purpose are the basic measuring rods for a good Y-Teen club program.

VISUAL AID CLUB

GIVES SERVICE TO TEACHERS

OFFICERS

ROBERT COBB	President
TOMMY ARMSTRONG	Vice President
KAY HAFENBRAK	Secretary
EUGENE McINNIS	Treasurer

Organized last year, the Visual Aid Club has increased in enrollment this year. Members of the Visual Aid Club run films during their study hall time on subjects which will be helpful to other classes. Though the members have their regular meetings after school, they meet with Mrs. Tindol different periods during the day to show films. Members of the club carry the motion picture equipment around to the classrooms to show educational movies. Any student may become a member by applying to the sponsor, Mrs. Tindol.

F.H.A. DEVELOPS

The Future Homemakers of America provides for the development of better home life for members and their families. Through the years, it has developed in its members an interest in home and community life. The Byrd club, which was organized in 1930, is affiliated with parish, state, and national organizations and gives them its whole-hearted support. Each year delegates attend district, parish, and state conventions. At the Caddo Parish Convention February 15, Dollie Born and Virginia Kennedy were elected Secretary and Treasurer respectively and will hold these offices for the coming year.

During the past school year the members sponsored several projects. Besides selling candy to raise money for the club, they had a Christmas party. At the end of the year, they had a Mother-Daughter banquet during which the officers were installed. All of the FHA activities were carried on under the leadership of Miss Blatterman, the club's sponsor.

CREATIVE WRITING PROMOTES ORIGINAL COMPOSITION

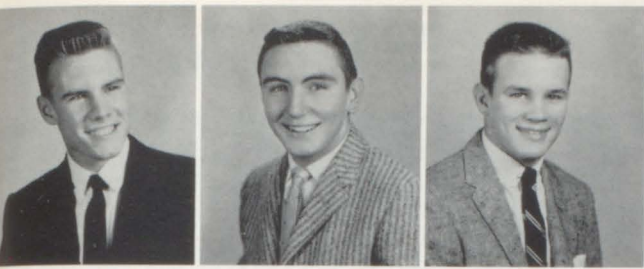

Organized in the fall of 1955, the Creative Writing Club has grown in membership to the present enrollment of thirty-nine. The purpose of the club is to promote interest and develop talents in writing. Manuscripts composed by members and other Byrd students are submitted for publication in the "Scriptus," the annual booklet of the club. The cover of the "Scriptus" is designed by Byrd's art department and prizes are given for the best cover design and literary compositions. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Cleo Mohr and Mrs. Sadie Yarbrough, meetings are held on the first and third Tuesday of each month.

At right: Stephen Murdock, Alsie Duncan, Jimmy Hartwell and Diane Cadenhead act as "hoboes" to raise money for the club at the club's annual "Hobo Day."

The Homecoming dance is one of the most important of the school year, at which the Queen and her court are presented. Tickets for the dance are sold by the Varsity Club members.

The members of the Varsity Club include the boys who have earned a letter in one of the four major sports at Byrd, which include football, basketball, track, and baseball. Also included are the managers who have aided the players and coaches in various ways. Preparation for the annual Homecoming Dance is the main project of the members. The Varsity Club is sponsored by the coaches.

THE BYRD 4-H CLUB WON MANY

The officers are: Larry Beadles, President; Ronnie Gardner, Vice President; Millie Joffrion, Secretary; Lou Johnson, Treasurer.

Appolonia Bernal is hard at work on her Food Preparation project.

A number of Byrd 4-H members received awards in various phases of their work at the Louisiana State Fair. Some of the major awards were: Lou Johnson, Grand Champion Market Hog and Reserve Champion Sheep Showmanship; Ronnie Gardner, Grand Champion Sheep Showmanship; Arnold Parish, Grand Champion Cockerel; Miles Turner received various first place awards with his canning. Also, Byrd's Livestock Judging Team, composed of Lou Johnson, Ronnie Gardner, and Milton McClure, placed first in the state. This victory entitled them to a trip to the National Livestock Show in Chicago, Illinois. At the National Show, although the team didn't place, Ronnie Gardner placed sixth in the nation in individual judging. Lou Johnson's Hereford steer also won first place in the Senior Calf Class.

Many of the Byrd 4-H members won trips by their outstanding 4-H work. Twelve students made a trip to Baton Rouge for the Short Course during the summer of 1957. Six students attended the L.S.U. Spring Livestock Show at Baton Rouge.

Two Byrd students were elected to serve on the Caddo Parish Executive Committee. They were Lou Johnson and Miles Turner. Lou also was elected to serve on the State Executive Committee.

The local club is sponsored by Mr. Smith, Byrd Biology teacher, and Mrs. Howard Johnson, adult Advisor.

First row: Dale Coleman, Frances Joffrion, Helen Stutts, Jeanette Davis, Polly Bernal, Mike Turner.

Second row: Linda Taylor, Lynn Thompson, Cathy Schwab, Linda Friddell, Jim Finch, Bob Tokey, Arnold Parish.

TRIPS FOR OUTSTANDING WORK

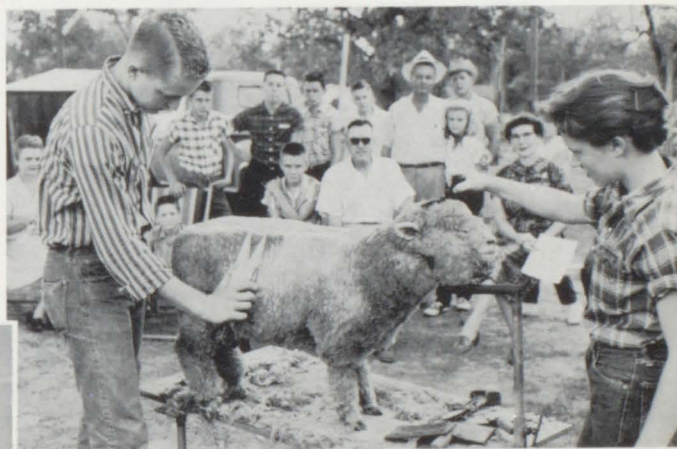

Barry Dillard is shown making a hot house frame for part of his gardening project.

Milton McClure, Bob Tokey, Lou Johnson, Larry Beadles, and Cathy Schwab are shown presenting a bulletin board to the club agents for use in the parish office of the 4-H Club.

Right: Larry Beadles and Lou Johnson demonstrate sheep grooming at a parish grooming demonstration.

Below: Ronnie Gardner demonstrates the form that won him the championship trophy for sheep showmanship.

Ronnie Gardner, Milton McClure, and Lou Johnson made the trip to Chicago for the National Livestock Show in which Lou's Hereford steer placed first in the Senior Calf Division.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Le Cercle Francais, fonde en 1921, est L'organisation la plus vieille a Byrd High School. Sous la direction de Mlle. Marie Therese Le Blanc, les reunions ont lieu le deuxieme et le quatrieme mardi du mois. Ce jour-la les membres portent un drapeau francais et parlent francais dans les corridors. Aux reunions les programmes varient. On donne des pieces et des filmes; on chante et on s'amuse aux jeux francais. On invite des Francais a faire des petits discours. Le but du cercle est d'aider les eleves a mieux parler et a mieux comprendre la langue francaise et aussi les coutumes et la culture de la France. L'annee se termine au printemps par un banquet qui est le plus grand evenement.

On Friday of National Education Week, the French Club members boarded buses and went downtown to Sear's window where a meeting was held from 11:30 to 1:00.

It is necessary to know a certain amount of French geography, in studying the French language. Joseph Fertitta, Linda Malone, Ann Meredith, and Anne Gibbs look on as Stephen Richardson points out Paris, the capital of France.

The French Club members are starting early in their preparation for the banquet held in the spring, one of the occasions they especially enjoy. Making place cards is the duty these students have undertaken.

EXTRA ACTIVITIES ARE ENJOYED BY FRENCH CLUB.

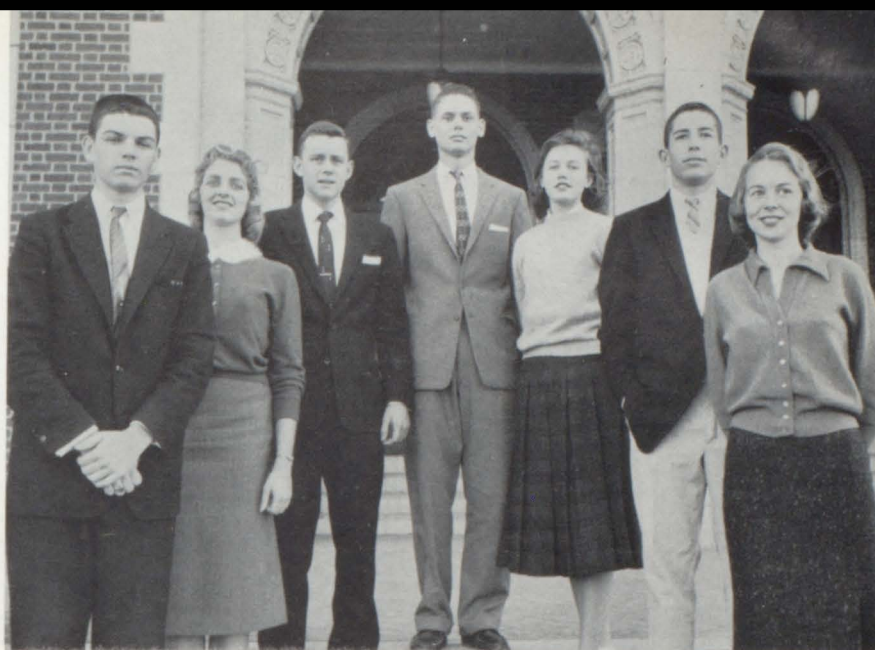

Making hats is another preparation necessary for the French Club banquet. To enter into all the activities offered is essential to obtain the benefits that can be proffered by the club.

Marcia Rifkin, Martha Yancey, Kay Hafenbrak, John Carpenter, Diane Trahan, and Sandra Sims exhibit a vocabulary game and a beautiful scene of France. This game and others are used in some of the club programs.

The French Club has access to a record player and dozens of French records. Every Tuesday, during the activity period, the students listen to them in order to improve their pronunciation of the language.

GAYARRE HISTORY CLUB

The Gayarre History Club, the oldest and one of the largest clubs at Byrd, is under the able sponsorship of Mrs. Mattie Gray Brown. The club meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month for the purpose of familiarizing students with our state's historical places of interest and cooperating in civic affairs.

Annually a trip is made to Natchez, Mississippi, during the Pilgrimage, and trips to local sights such as Mansfield's battlefield or old Indian villages are among the club's tentative plans. All junior and senior students of American History with a C+ average are eligible for membership. The club was organized in 1929, under the leadership of Miss Lila McLure, with thirty charter members.

Hy-Y members, George Rains, Robert McCann, Glen Vance, and Terry Waxham warm up before one of their basketball games.

The Byrd Hi-Y is a branch of the central Y.M.C.A. The club is sponsored by Forrest Thomasson and the leader is Mr. Russell Brown, who is the mechanical drawing teacher here at Byrd. The Hi-Y meets once every week. At some meetings a program is presented by its members, while other meetings are strictly business. The remaining meetings are spent practicing basketball. The Hi-Y team is a member of a local league. Robert McCann is also the secretary of the State Hi-Y.

SE HABLA ESPANOL

Clockwise: Susanne King, Secretary; Mary Ann Foster, President; Lucy Lynn Youman, Vice President; Jane Jones, Sergeant-at-Arms; Vicki Longmire, Treasurer.

Se Habla Espanol, a first year Spanish club, is unusual from other Byrd organizations in that it changes its name each year. Mrs. Lucille Knapp is the club's sponsor.

The principal purpose of the club is to encourage interest in the language by forming an organization to discuss the customs and habits of the Spanish speaking countries. The business meetings and programs are conducted in Spanish and consist of songs, games, and special guests.

A highlight of the year is a special banquet held in the spring at El Chico, at which Mexican food is served.

THEY SPEAK SPANISH FOR FUN.

SUMMER

"Bring back the singing; and the scent

*Of meadowlands at dewy prime;—
Oh, bring again my heart's content,
Thou Spirit of the Summertime!"*

William Allingham, Song

Summer is the title of our final act in the School Year. This is the time of the year that sports-minded people turn toward baseball, golf, tennis, and swimming. The Freshmen will be featured in this act, for they will be the stars of tomorrow. Summer does not necessarily mean the end of school, for many people will attend summer school. Others will perform various activities for their organizations such as selling ads for the GUSHER and "High Life" and attending various workshops and conferences. Summer by no means marks the end of school for the teachers. They are the producers and the directors of our play, and their job never ends. While the cast rests, they prepare the stage for the many plays that will follow this one at the City of Byrd.

SUMMER

SUMMER HOLIDAY

That last day of school was written on the smiling faces of every laughing student and teacher. Ever since that first day of school nine months ago, many hours have been spent dreaming about the summer holiday. Whether it was a dream of a tennis game, a water-skiing picnic, or just sleeping late and loafing, each student has a day dream of his own. Whether that last day marked the end of high school life or the beginning of a new life in the City of Byrd, a three-month vacation is a reward well earned.

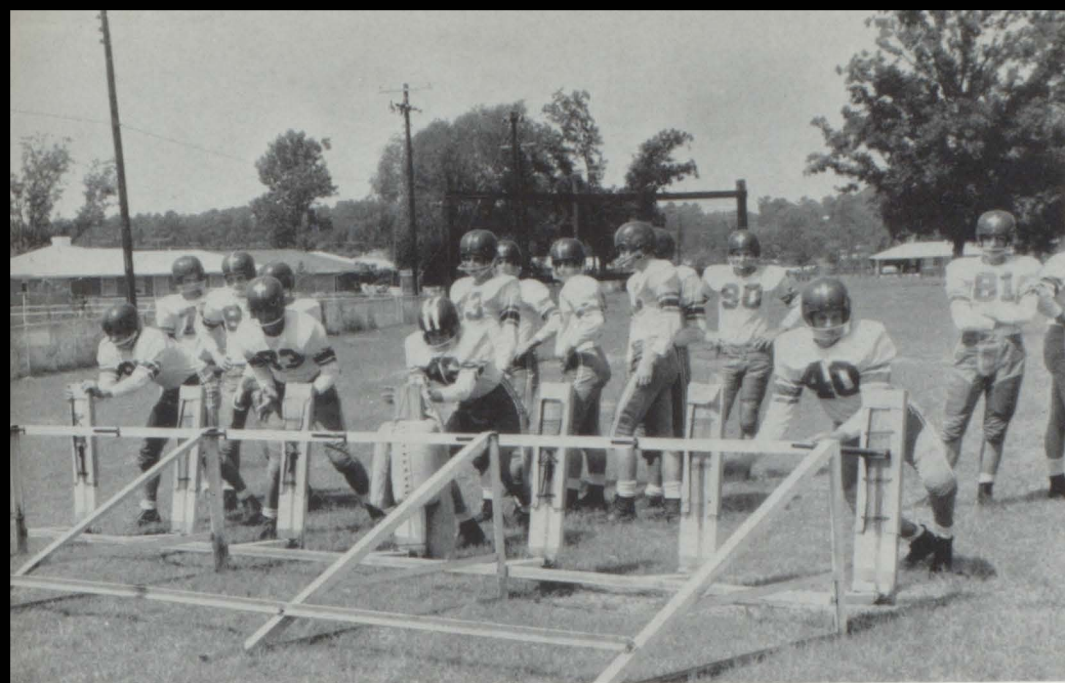

As the year draws to a close the seniors order their invitations for graduation. Jack Bryant, Johnny Dishman, and Tommy Hilburn order their invitations from Mrs. Hamel.

Mr. Duncan extends a hand of congratulations to James Neely, one of the many graduating Seniors.

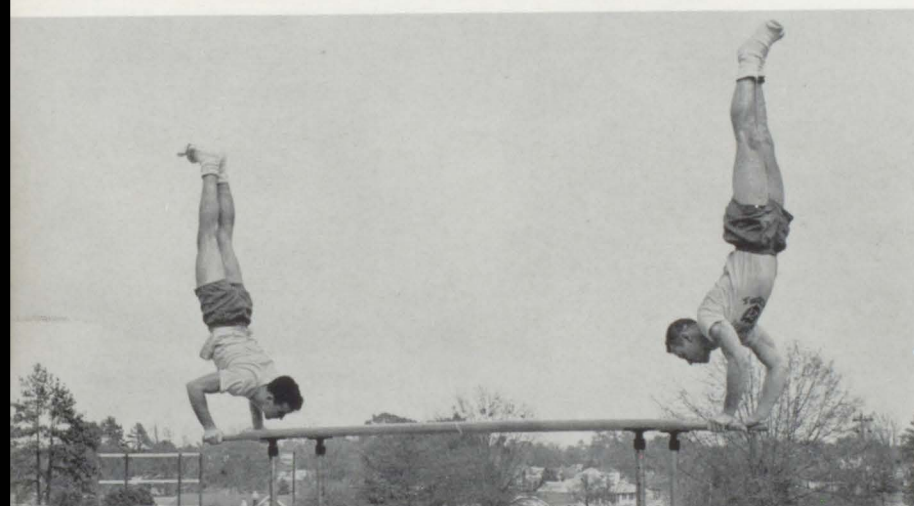

The High Life and Gusher staffs have an organization, the Quill and Scroll, consisting of those students who have put in a certain amount of work. Betty Kay Floyd pins the colors on Ginny Bray as Merritt Chastain watches.

Summer football practice is very important in the success of our team next year. These players are learning the defensive fundamentals on the seven-man sled.

The athletic department at Byrd is excellent. It gives the students the opportunity to participate in the various activities. Malcolm Foster and Louis Davidson, co-champions on the parallel bar work out during their gym period.

The Patton Platoon of Byrd is a drill team composed of R.O.T.C. cadets. During the summer they learned new drills and perfected halftime performances for the coming year.

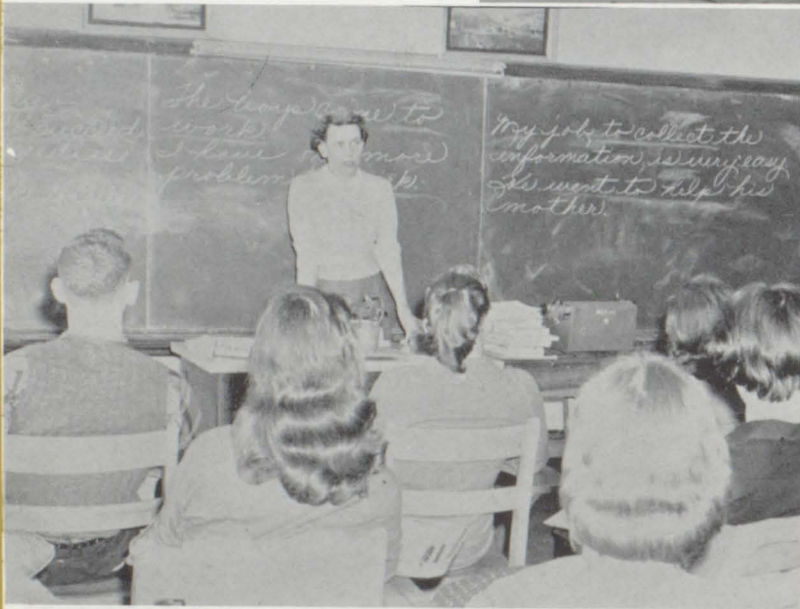

After the last nine months of hard work, some students plan to spend their holiday in bettering their education by attending summer school while others plan to put their acquired knowledge to a test in the form of a summer job. No matter how the summer months are spent the everyday happenings each individual has experienced will help better their lives.

Not more than fifteen minutes after the last bell on that last day of school rang, the city of Byrd looked like this. One would have thought it had been deserted for some time had it not been for the paper and notebooks scattered over the grounds and parking area.

For the first time at Byrd the National Merit Scholarship Tests were given to the juniors April 29. Miss Lucy talks to a group of juniors, explaining the tests to them.

The summer months offer many forms of recreation . . . summer camps, family trips, swimming, skiing, and parties. Along with play must also come work . . . in passing by our great city one may see the football team or the Pep Squad or the Patton Platoon working to make next year more successful than the last. During the month of August many R.O.T.C. cadets have the opportunity of attending the summer camp at Fort Polk, La., to better their military training.

In the latter part of the summer, the boys chosen for Pelican State go to Baton Rouge. After they return, the boys put on a humorous skit about their week in the capital.

All year long the R.O.T.C. cadets have the opportunity of firing on the rifle range. Sergeant Jones adds up a cadet's score while Joe Scarpinetto records it.

Mr. McGeehee, our new advanced algebra teacher, came to Byrd at mid-term. Hal Griswold, Suzanne Jones, Dema Whitmeyer, and William Greene listen to his explanation of the importance of the slide rule in algebra.

As the mornings become chillier and the leaves on the trees begin to turn, each student realizes that there are only a few days of the summer holiday left. After Labor Day the daily routine of school begins once more. Another high school year has begun and the heart of the City of Byrd begins to beat once again . . . and each student finds his place in our great city as a Byrdite.

Frequently during the school year, dances were held in our Youth Center. These students enjoy being together at a Saturday night dance.

With the close of the year also comes the close of the projects that have been worked on all year. Dickie Flowers, Fran Nation, and Duke Griffey show their projects on great Americans.

LEAVING SCHOOL AFTER PRACTICE in their respective sports are these seniors: Jack Greene, tennis; Mary Small, tennis; Finis Prendergast, swimming team; Danny Duepree, baseball; Charlie Ford, baseball.

When summer draws near:

Practice begins for tennis, baseball, swimming, and golf . . . you are issued your equipment . . . you hope to be able to make the top three on the tennis team . . . with your newly acquired glove, you believe that you have the jump for that catcher's position on the baseball team . . . when the first baseball game arrives, you feel the "butterflies" in your stomach . . . in golf practice you shoot the lowest score of your life, and you hope that you will do as well in the next tournament . . . your swimming team stands to beat the fifty meter backstroke record in the next meet . . . it's hard to set a good record in sports as well as keep a good scholastic average, but then you look back and see that, because of your effort, you have received more from life.

Coach Cox discusses tactics with the "boys" before one of the games.

Second row: Jimmy Williams, Billy Rutledge, Delton Gwinn, David Gillian, Larry Best, Bill Hancock, Ben Carter, Hoyt Bain, Kenneth Luker.

BASEBALL

This year the Jackets have returning starters at seven of the 9 positions. Seniors Charles Ford, Joe Zaffater, Billy Fitzgerald, and Danny Deupree should carry much of the load for the Jackets in the 1958 season. Juniors, Jerry Godwin and Murray Mayfield should also help a great deal in the Yellow Jacket success. The Jackets have a young team which should produce great results in the future.

BYRD 0—ST. JOHN'S 5

Led by Danny Kanapkey's one hit pitching, the St. Johns Blue Flyers moved to a 5-0 victory over the Yellow Jackets. The lone Jacket hit came in the second inning off the bat of center fielder Charles Ford. Jerry Godwin, sophomore, started on the mound for the Jackets and received credit for the loss even though he pitched a fine ball game.

BYRD 4—OUACHITA 6

Junior pitcher Billy Fitzgerald held the Ouachita Lions to one hit and no runs for the first four innings before a Ouachita rally in the bottom of the fifth inning changed the score to 6-4. This is the way the game ended with the Yellow Jackets suffering their second loss.

Senior Dickey Richards tossed a 2 hitter as the Jackets picked up their first win of the season. Coming out of a slump, the Jackets started to hit, and, as a result, scored seven runs. It was the first defeat in 5 starts for the Indians.

BYRD 9—HOMER 0

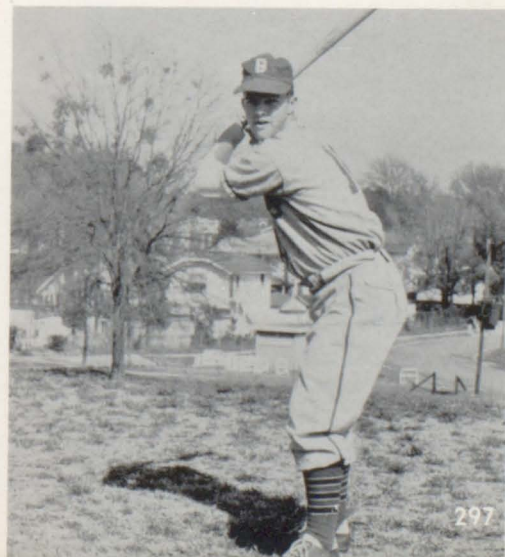

Byrd racked up their second victory in a row by defeating Homer 9-0 behind the 5 hit pitching of Jerry Godwin. Godwin also struck-out 14 men. Charles Ford paced the Jacket stickmen with 3 hits.

Once again Danny Kanapkey shut-out the Jackets, but this time Byrd managed to get 5 hits. Junior Billy Fitzgerald started the game and pitched 4 innings, receiving credit for the loss.

BYRD 4—WEST MONROE 5

West Monroe handed the Jackets their second conference loss of 1957 with a 5-4 victory. The Yellow Jackets led most of the way until the last inning, when three walks and a sacrifice fly produced the winning tally for the boys from Monroe.

BYRD 1—FAIR PARK 2

The big bats of the Fair Park Indians had little success against right-handed Dickey Richards. The underdog Jackets fought hard throughout the whole game. This was possibly their best game of the season. Sophomore Murray Mayfield was a stand-out in the outfield for the Jackets.

With Senior lettermen Bob Blewett, Bill Smith, and Pat Wright, the 1957 Byrd Golf Team moved to within seven strokes of the State Championship. Rod Yeager and Billy Coker, both juniors, proved to be important factors in the Yellow Jacket success. Coach John Rogers led the golfers well despite the handicap of having few opponents. Although the seniors and juniors took most of the honors, the sophomores and freshmen played well to gain valuable experience. The Jackets were District Runner-Up by one stroke.

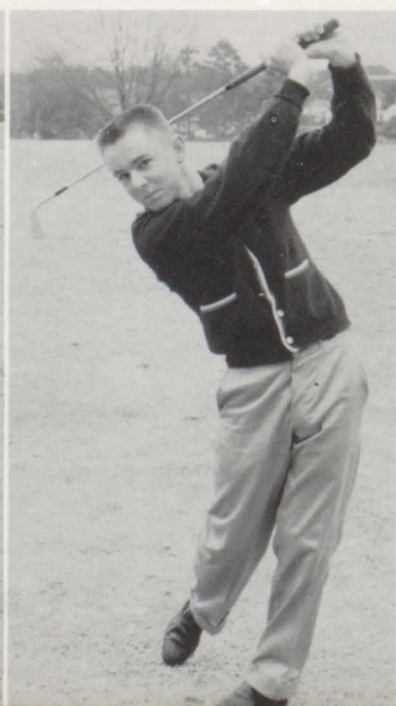

In 1958 the Jackets will play Springhill and El Dorado three times each and Bolton and Neville once. In addition to these eight meets, the Jackets will go to the District meet, April 25, and the State meet at Baton Rouge, May 9.

During the 1957-58 school year, Coach Turner organized the Byrd Gymnastics team. This team went to both Broadmoor and Linwood Jr. High Schools and gave demonstrations. The boys on the team competed against boys from every gym class in school for the honor of being on this team. Garry Sullenbuger won the parallel bar championship, while Bobby Moore and Terry Shipp were winning the inverted balancing championship. On the side horse, Dale Coleman and Pat Bridwell were co-champions. DeWayne Durham was the mat champion, and Curry Freeman and David Gillian were champions on the high bar and somersault respectively. The gymnastics team also gave demonstrations at the Parish Physical Education Meeting, and at Go-to-School Night at Byrd High School.

TENNIS IS FUN

JERRY JOUETT—Senior

This year's tennis team is expected to be one of the most promising Byrd has ever had. With five returning lettermen the team plans to attend twelve tournaments, including the state match in Baton Rouge late this spring.

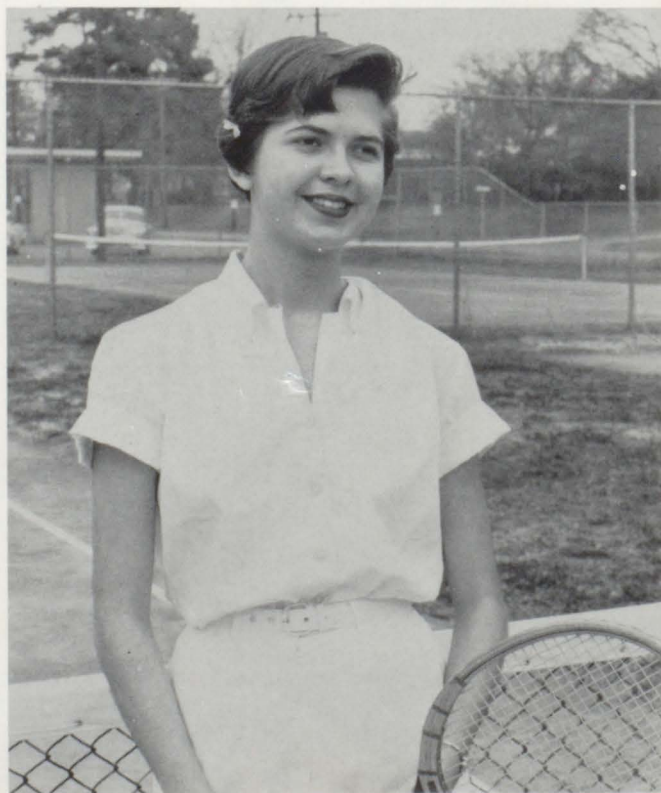

JACK GREENE—Senior

The team won first place in girls' and boys' doubles at Baton Rouge last year. Coach Lee Hedges will accompany the boys on their meets; while Coach Phalamae Gray will attend the meets with the girls.

YELLOW JACKET

1957 STATE CHAMPIONS

Victory Park Pool, Minden, Louisiana, was the scene of the 1957 High School State Championship Swimming Meet. The Yellow Jackets were successful in defending their state championship, but not before the Jesuit Bluejays pulled to one point of the proud Jackets. The Bluejays, in winning the 200 meter free style, set a state record with a time of 2:02.5, but the Jackets were not to be denied their acclaim, McClamrock, Tallman, East, and Britt closed fast for a close second in this event, and gained 10 badly needed points. With these 10 points, the Jackets moved to a 51-50 victory over the Bluejays. Harris McClamrock set a new standard in the 100-meter breast stroke with a time of 1:21.1. Harris placed first 3 times and second once to be chosen Outstanding Boy Performer of the meet.

At the N.S.C. swimming meet McClamrock was again the outstanding performer with two record-breaking feats—the 100-yard back stroke and the butterfly stroke. The Byrd tankmen easily defeated Istrouma 44-24 for the Northwest District Rally Championship. Prendergast won first place in the 100-yard orthodox breast stroke while Glen Britt was winning the 220-yard free style. Pat East, Bobby Brown, Prendergast, and Britt placed first in the medley relay. The Yellow Jackets enter the 1958 competition with a fast and experienced team.

SWIMMING

1957 RUNNERS-UP

For the second year in a row the Girls' Swimming Team from Byrd High School was the runner-up to the Tidettes from Minden High School for the state championship. In the State Meet, Clair DeLee, Paula Allred, Betty Henderson, and Gloria Henderson placed first in the 200-meter medley relay with a time of 2:57.4. The Byrd relay team placed second in 200-meter free-style relay. Kathy Howard logged two second places and one third—200-meter free-style, diving, and 50 meter breast-stroke in that order. Allred splashed to a close second place in the 50-meter freestyle. Claire DeLee placed first in 50-meter backstroke but was disqualified for a foul. Using the Y.W.C.A. pool, the Yellow Jackets are training for the coming season, and in 1958 should hold the 1958 state championship. Mr. Pool is the Byrd sponsor for both swimming teams.

FRESHMEN

In the summer of the year:

You, the Freshmen of Byrd High School, look back upon your first year . . . you think of how scared you were that first day of school . . . you bought three elevator tickets that day only to find out there were no elevators . . . you remember how surprised you were at the size of the library . . . at the Christmas assembly you realized that the library had to be that big to accommodate all of those people . . . you still don't understand how you ever managed to pass that first mid-term exam . . . those football and basketball games, and the organizations you joined, still bring back many happy memories . . . all in all, your freshman year has given you a world full of many thrills and surprises.

Even though these freshman students, Linda Hope, Ann Ray, Greer Lawson, Carl Holland, Barbara McGary, Charles McBride, did not win, they still realize the honor accompanying their nomination for a class office.

On Freshman Day, these students assembled in front of the building to await the ringing of the bell which would begin their first day at Byrd. This day was entirely devoted to the Freshmen as they were first welcomed in an assembly to the City of Byrd and then guided by representatives from the upper classes throughout the school.

WAITING FOR FACULTY MEETING TO START are these representative teachers: Major Jones, R.O.T.C.; Miss Robinson, Foreign Language; Mrs. Hastings, Home Economics; Mr. Poole, Mathematics; Mr. Burnside, Science; and Mrs. Mohr, English.

FACULTY

In the summer of the year:

When most of the work for the students is over, the work for you, the teachers, is just beginning . . . many of you teach summer school . . . others go to school to earn higher degrees and be certified for better teaching . . . plans are made for the following year . . . it's a tough job planning the schedule of a student and making out the cards . . . many of you suggest ideas to modify the structure of the buildings so that more courses may be added and new materials provided for the old . . . many of you meet with the activities that you sponsor . . . the coaches work with next year's football team . . . the R.O.T.C. officers work with the Patton Platoon . . . you are the ones who keep the City of Byrd open all year long and are there to welcome the students back in the Fall.

A DAY IN THE

1. The teacher's parking lot begins to fill a few minutes before eight. Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Parks speak to Mr. Graves, who stays on the lot to make sure no students park there.

2. Every day the teacher's mail boxes are full. Mr. Conover checks his box for important mail.

5. By lunch the teacher has worked up an appetite. Miss Harris pays a cafeteria worker for her lunch.

8. Many teachers hold "after three" classes for the benefit of the student. Miss Brown helps her students understand plane geometry.

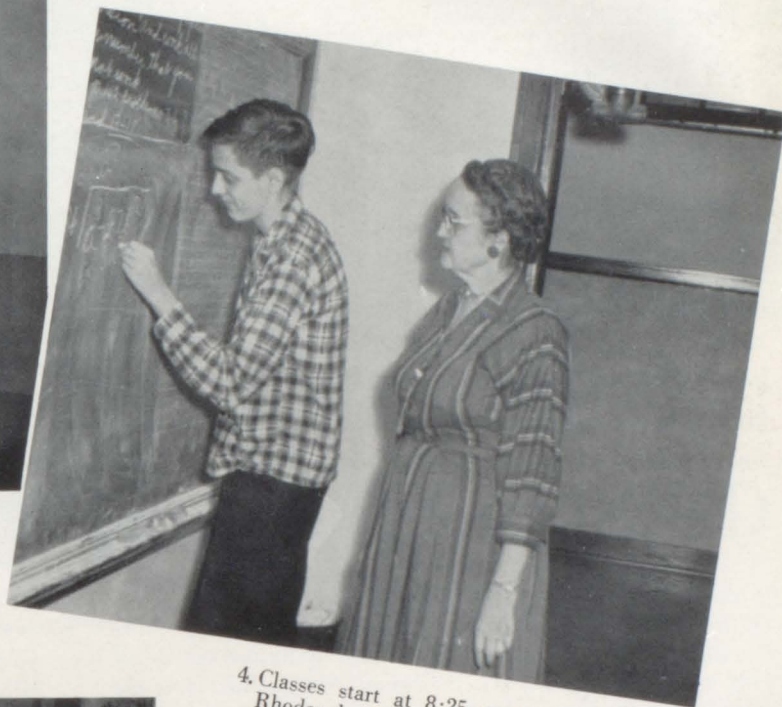

6. After lunch, it's back to the classroom for the teacher. Mr. Dehner helps his science students with an experiment.

LIFE OF A TEACHER

3. Each teacher is required to sign in before eight. Mrs. Davis and Miss Alison are pictured here as they sign in ready to begin the big day.

4. Classes start at 8:25 every morning. Miss Rhodes begins her algebra class by going over the homework.

7. Teaching is not all classwork. Research is a major part of a student's education. Mrs. Tindol helps these juniors find the material they need.

9. After a long day, a teacher takes a break for a cup of coffee. Sgt. Tate, Mrs. Yarbrough, and Mrs. Brown enjoy the privacy of the new teacher's lounge.

10. Many teachers sponsor activities and clubs. Mrs. Anderson is helping one of her Latin Club members with his costume for their skit.

MR. J. H. DUNCAN

B.A., TRINITY UNIVERSITY
M.A., UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

As a capable administrator and a worthy advisor, Mr. Duncan has become an integral part of our school since he came to Byrd three years ago. He has spent these three years willingly and unselfishly giving of his time to make Byrd a better educational institution. Truly he has endeared himself to all those who have passed through the halls of Byrd.

Mr. Duncan proves his capability as an administrator by showing his anxiety during a Byrd football game.

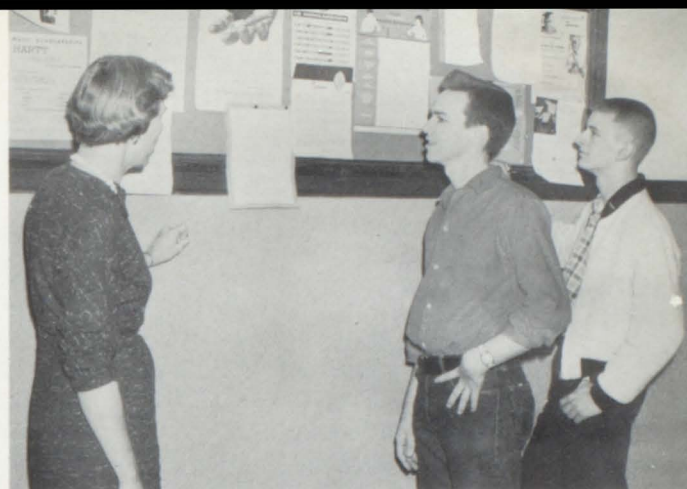

Even though Mr. Duncan spends a good part of his time during the day at Byrd, he still finds time to attend the after school activities, such as the R.O.T.C. Pancake Supper.

To aid Mr. Ravenna in fulfilling his many duties, the school acquired a new secretary. Even though Mrs. Herndon has been at Byrd for only a short while, she has contributed much to the school.

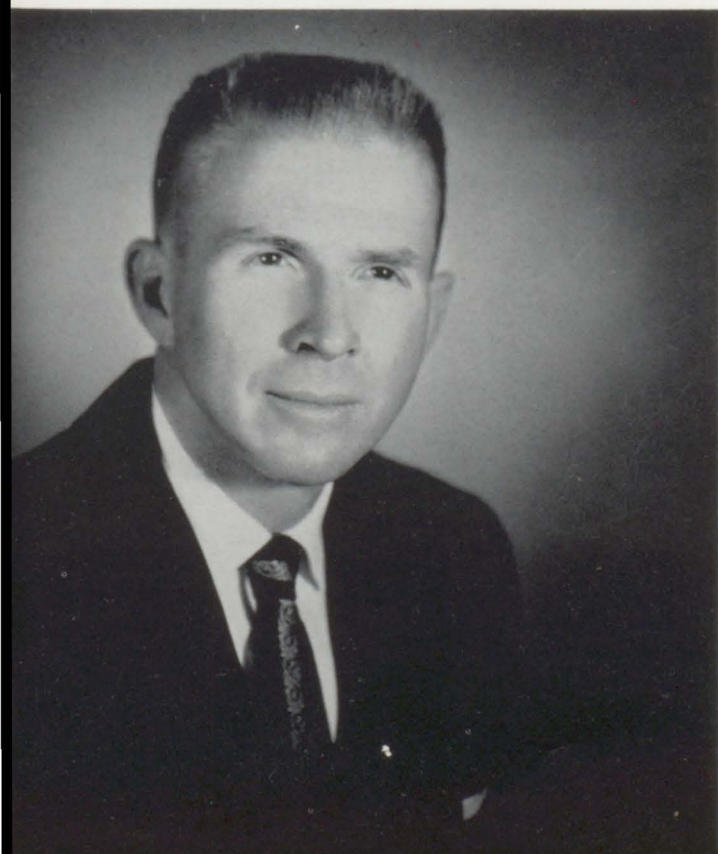

Miss Lucy points out particular fields in which a senior can obtain a scholarship to Benny Harris and Milton Trichel. Last year's scholarship fund provided the seniors with approximately $100,000 to be used wherever necessary.

COUNCILMEN OF THE CITY OF BYRD

A friendly smile and a pleasant voice calling your name as you pass the office, and you know at once who it is. Mr. Ravenna, the assistant principal of our school, has made it a practice to remember everyone's name and at the same time carry out his numerous duties. He is always ready to help any student with his problem and, as evidence of that fact, his office is almost always filled with students.

MR. CHARLES A. RAVENNA
B.S., M.S., M.A.

Do you have a problem? If so, you will find a cure in room 125. Miss Lucy, C. E. Byrd's student advisor, delights in handling any of the problems the students encounter. Aiding the seniors in choosing the college they would like to attend and helping them apply to that college are important but enjoyable to her. Most important, she helps the students adjust to life at Byrd.

In a senior English class Jean Abramson shows her sentence diagram to Alvin Toys.

Reading is an important part of all English classes. Ted Thomas and Cynthia Cook watch as Nancy Jo Smith hangs a book cover, which promotes reading interest.

Miss Kite held a special class for all students from her classes interested in studying novels. After discussing the authors and their works, they presented this information to their respective classes.

Melinda Witty, Martha Thigpen, and Donald McFarland point out the results of following the directions in this book. The library is beneficial in mathematics as well as English.

Evidence of the importance of English at Byrd is the fact that four years or their equivalent are required for graduation. To handle the business of this department, there are seventeen teachers. Classes at Byrd are planned so that each year new grammar and a different course in literature are studied. In the freshman and sophomore years we strive to learn literary appreciation. Juniors learn to enjoy American Literature, and seniors read the works of English authors. Students learn the fundamentals of grammar, oral and written composition, and literature. A graduate of Byrd who has taken advantage of the many opportunities to learn English is well prepared for the future.

THROUGHOUT LIFE

During study halls, many students enjoy reading in the periodical library. This is not only entertaining but also informative of world events. It is also important in doing research.

FRENCH, SPANISH, AND LATIN

These French students are reading a newspaper published to help them better understand the French language and customs.

Frances Lambert points out one of the countries in South America which Mrs. Yearwood's Spanish classes learned along with its capital.

Making the subject much more interesting, Miss Robinson often shows her slides of Italy to her Latin classes.

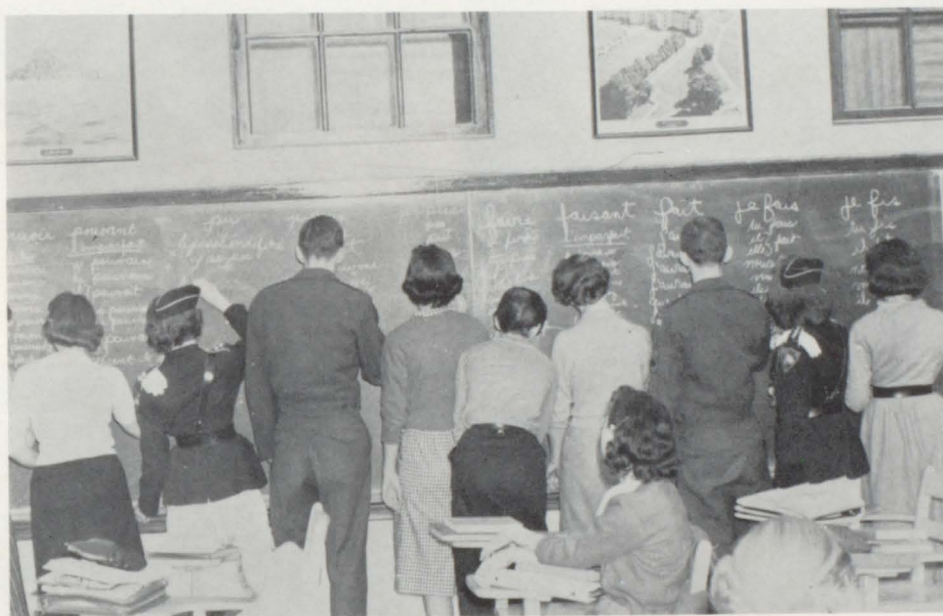

Language students at Byrd have ample opportunity to learn Spanish, Latin, and French. Two years of French and three years of Spanish and Latin are offered to those interested in this department.

Besides the language classes, participation in club activities creates interest. These clubs usually meet twice a month, and entertainment includes skits, movies, and guest speakers.

Learning a foreign language helps Americans to better understand their world neighbors. Our department at Byrd offers competent instruction in this field.

TEACH US FOREIGN CULTURE

It is important in any foreign language to learn the conjugation of verbs. This French class is learning by writing various verb forms.

As Denny Beckman watches, Margaret Bloomfield tacks up another picture of ancient Rome. These help to make the Latin-speaking people seem more real.

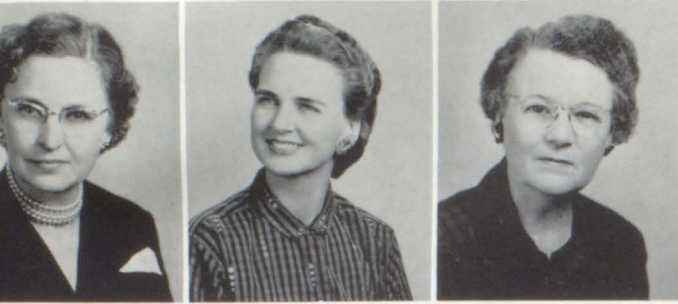

This clothing helps Spanish students better understand the customs of their Latin-American neighbors. Carolyn Dunmire, Linda Tippet, Suzanne Weeden, and Jerry Mashaw exhibit Spanish costumes and articles.

HOME ECONOMICS . . . USEFUL SKILL

HOME ECONOMICS

There is no doubt as to the usefulness in later life of courses taught in the Home Economics Department. Not only do the girls learn to cook and sew, but they also learn the essentials of being a good hostess and having a well-rounded personality. As home decoration is important, the girls are taught the significance of design and color combinations in this medium as well as in the field of fashion. They also learn good grooming habits and the importance of a neat appearance. Along the cooking line the girls learn new recipes which make tasty dishes. Offered for the second year is a new class in Home and Family Living; this course is open to both Senior girls and boys and gives preparation for adult responsibility. Many new ideas which may be used to help improve the community are acquired in our efficient Home Economics Department at Byrd.

Vocal music, art, drama, and instrumental music are included in the Fine Arts department. Mr. Robert Hallquist directs the choir, which participates in concerts, assembly programs, and operettas. Art, taught by Miss Betty Lawrence, is a very important subject for it aids in developing the talents of many students. Mr. Alvin Benner is director of the Byrd High School Band, which has rendered great service to the school throughout the year. The band gives two concerts annually and participates in many other functions. For the second year Mr. Walter Caughey has been in charge of an orchestra. Some of the members played for the operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance," given by the Choir. The orchestra also gives a concert in the spring. The librarians are Mrs. Frances Daugherty, Mrs. Dorothy Hanks, and Mrs. Lucile Tindol. Our library is filled with many books, maps, and dictionaries which aid the students in all their subjects. The materials library has magazines as well as films to help the student with his studies. Even though these courses are not required for graduation, each adds culture and art to the lives of many.

In his first year at Byrd a student may take either general math or freshman algebra. When a student enters his second year, he will usually choose between plane geometry, a study of squares, circles, and other figures, or business math, a course in which advanced arithmetic is applied to business. As he enters his third year, a student will usually select solid geometry, a study of figures with three dimensions, or advanced algebra in which logarithms, quadratic equations, and many other interesting subjects are studied. Finally in his senior year, trigonometry, which brings algebra, geometry, and arithmetic into use, will probably end his study of high school math. Even if a student stops here with his education, the knowledge he has gained will greatly benefit him.

MATH, A NECESSARY SCIENCE

Leonard Vedlitz, Merrilee Streun, Mary Lynne Disiere, Marion Donovan make up a plane geometry test after school.

This freshman algebra class is going over their homework at the board.

Richard Phillips demonstrates his three dimensional graph of the cube root of a number. He made this for an advanced algebra project.

Our Industrial Arts department strives to encourage creative ingenuity. The courses offered are chiefly the study of tools, woods and their finishes, design, and construction.

Woodworking students are taught carpentry and the use of various hand and power tools in the shop. One who takes mechanical drawing is taught the skills needed in architectural and engineering fields. Precision construction of blueprints is one of these skills.

General Crafts include leather work, metals, and pottery. This course gives a variety of industrial arts instruction.

Students taking industrial arts courses at Byrd learn useful skills which help to broaden their education and which can lead to more study in college and later to successful jobs.

Kelly Allen is using the drafting machine in making his drawing.

This mechanical drawing class works to become more accurate in constructions that are increasingly more detailed.

Mr. Miller admires Richard Frazier's finished product, of which he can well be proud.

WORKMEN OF TOMORROW

Mr. Brown explains the working of the Rotometeor, a printing machine, to Carl Holland, Kelly Allen, John Davis, and Sonny Campbell.

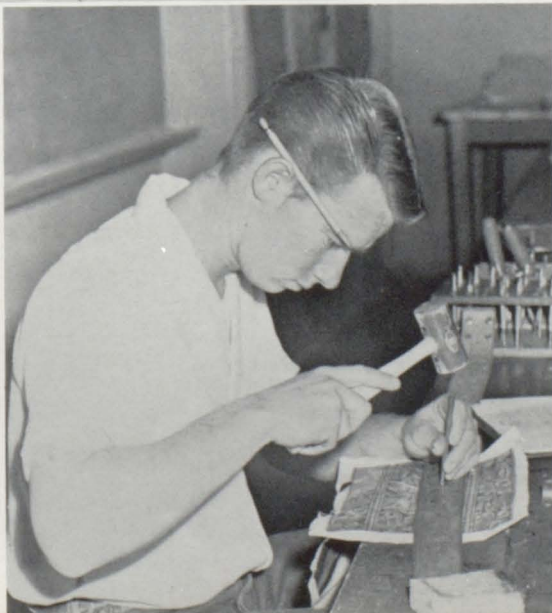

Paul Prince is shown sanding a chair as part of his woodworking course.

Left: Everyone in this woodworking class is busily working on his own project.

General crafts can be fun as well as constructive. Here Jerry Hilburn and Jerry Fincher are both working on belts, which is an interesting phase of leatherwork.

R.O.T.C. TEACHES DISCIPLINE

To teach the cadet the basic principles of leadership and a better understanding of military life is the aim of ROTC, although it is not required. The classes meet daily and are usually under the instruction of the cadet officers. Byrd and Fair Park are the only schools in Louisiana that have ROTC units. The Division Staff is at Byrd this year, but will be at Fair Park next year. Major Jones is the Professor of Military Science and Tactics of both ROTC units here in Shreveport.

ROTC is not all work, but there is a certain amount of fun included, too. Every year the ROTC parent's club helps the ROTC give a pancake supper. This money is used for sending the cadets each summer to Camp Shreve. at Leesville. In the spring an annual ROTC week is proclaimed by the mayor. During this week the ROTC has a parade and a military ball held in the Municipal Auditorium. The ROTC spends all year preparing for Federal Inspection in early April. In 1957 the inspecting officers gave Byrd the highest possible award, that of Honor School.

Every day each cadet is required to read the bulletin board so he may know what is scheduled for that day. Sonny Brown, Wren Cohenour, and Ray Lindsey are checking the day's activities.

Every second and fourth Tuesday of the month the ROTC has a parade. These parades are held so that in the spring during Federal Inspection Byrd ROTC will know how to march correctly.

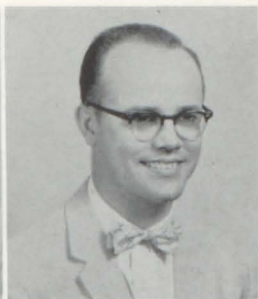

As everyone is always needing equipment, the supply room is always busy. Mr. Hoss is in charge of the supply room and keeps everyone satisfied. Receiving equipment are Dennis Herrington, Chuck Adams, and Denny Barber.

Four sciences are taught to students at Byrd. Freshmen take general science, which is a study of elementary principles of science. Biology, the study of plant and animal life, is offered to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Chemistry, the study of the nature and composition of matter and of their relation to one another, is the next highest science offered. The top rung in our ladder of sciences is physics, which is the study of changes in matter and energy that take place without changing their forms. These courses give students a good foundation in science.

Arthur Herold, Penny Cone, and Cissy Means are intent on their chemistry experiments, which help to promote interest in chemistry class.

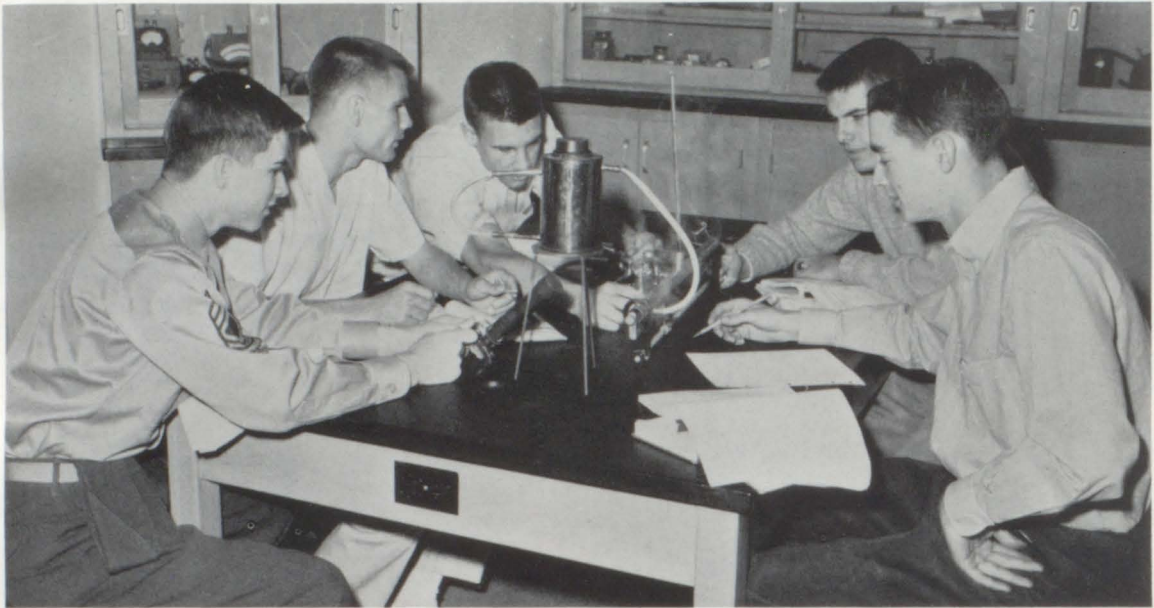

Individual projects add much to a student's knowledge of biology.

The study of the bone structure of the skull is important. James Lupton and Jimmy Lerner learn the names of the various bones.

BYRD OFFERS STUDENTS

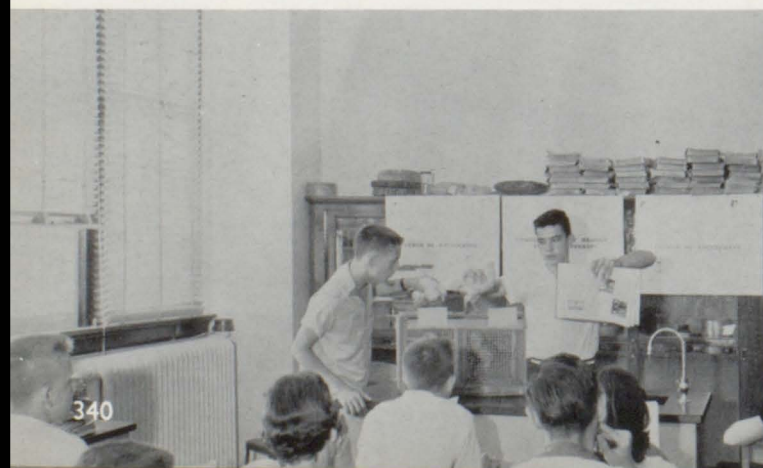

Engrossed in their linear experiment in physics are Reed Armstrong, Billy Fitzgerald, Charles Peatross, Grantham Couch, and Doug Cherry.

Right: Betsy Payne, Betty Bracken, and Irma Toys seem to be enjoying their study of the bones. It is an interesting and important study.

After working for a long time on his project, Dickie Flowers is finally presenting it to the class.

In general science, students study various phases of science. Here Mr. Dehner does an experiment for an interested group of boys.

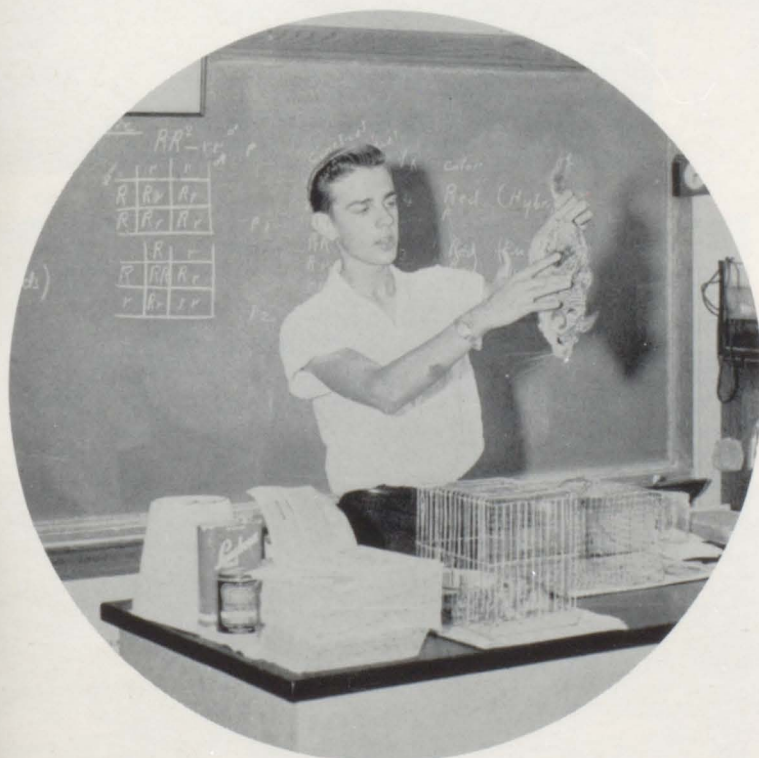

FOUR BASIC SCIENCES

Here L. C. Seaman is doing an experiment on the electroscope, part of the study of electricity.

Chemistry projects, an interesting addition to class work, are due in the months of January and February. Ronnie Free, Jimmy Tindoll, Lewis Conger, and Joel Johnson look on as Mary Nell Yauger explains her project on gas dehydration.

Bobby Earp shows his biology project on hampsters. The exhibition of projects proves interesting and informative.

It is a requirement to learn the Morse code in general science. A student is demonstrating the use of a telegraph set.

SOCIAL THE HISTORY

Past, present, and future history are all part of the courses offered in the Social Science department. To graduate from Byrd, one unit in civics and one unit of American History is required.

During National Education Week several American History Classes had their lesson in Sear's window. Gilbert Carner and Madeline Trichel study their lesson in the window.

World History helps individuals learn about other countries and their location. Carolyn Holt and Von Raines study the globe.

Diane Cox and Teddy Shafer study a map drawn by one of their classmates.

Miss Strother explains the present world situation to her civics class.

SCIENCE OF OUR WORLD

American History students are required to read biographies of great Americans so they might better understand how America was built. Paul Lashley, Jerry Blair, Pat Bate-man are choosing a biography to report on.

TRADE SCHOOL TEACHES VOCATIONAL SKILL

Students participating in the program offered by the Shreveport Industrial School attend classes at Byrd for half a day and job training classes for the other half. At the Trade School students may take courses in welding, radio and television repair, automobile repair, machinery, and barbering. Graduating from both Byrd and Trade School in four years, students are prepared for beginning their chosen profession. This program provides a wonderful opportunity for learning a trade.

Leading the competent Trade School staff are principal T. W. Moore and assistant principal A. M. Irving.

The Trade School staff includes J. H. Zneck, B. L. Manning, J. L. Sermons, A. C. Rast, and C. H. Wallace.

Intent on learning the mechanics of an automobile engine are Harry Bernard, Ben Norwood, Barry Green, and Robert Stanton.

Quinton Brock is shown putting his knowledge of auto repair into practice.

James Beaird, Mickey Kelly, and Tony Ropollo study the workings of a radio.

Carpentry is a useful skill. Doyle Maudlin cuts a board on the electric saw.

OFFICE WORKERS

Many students do important jobs in the office. They check students in and out of school and phone all students reported absent by the teachers. The morning reports are collected from the classrooms by the office workers. At the beginning of each semester these workers help make out schedule cards for everyone at Byrd. Although the faculty members do the secretarial work and are in charge of the business of the office, the students assist them by answering the telephone and running errands. Every afternoon the office workers distribute the afternoon sheet containing announcements for both faculty and students. These duties of the office workers are vitally important to our school.

CAFETERIA STAFF

Beginning at 11:20 and ending at 1 P.M., students work in the cafeteria: behind the counter, taking up money, and at the cash register. There are many assistants needed to keep the cafeteria running smoothly. Thanks to the cafeteria managers and the co-operation of their staff, the food is nourishing and well prepared.

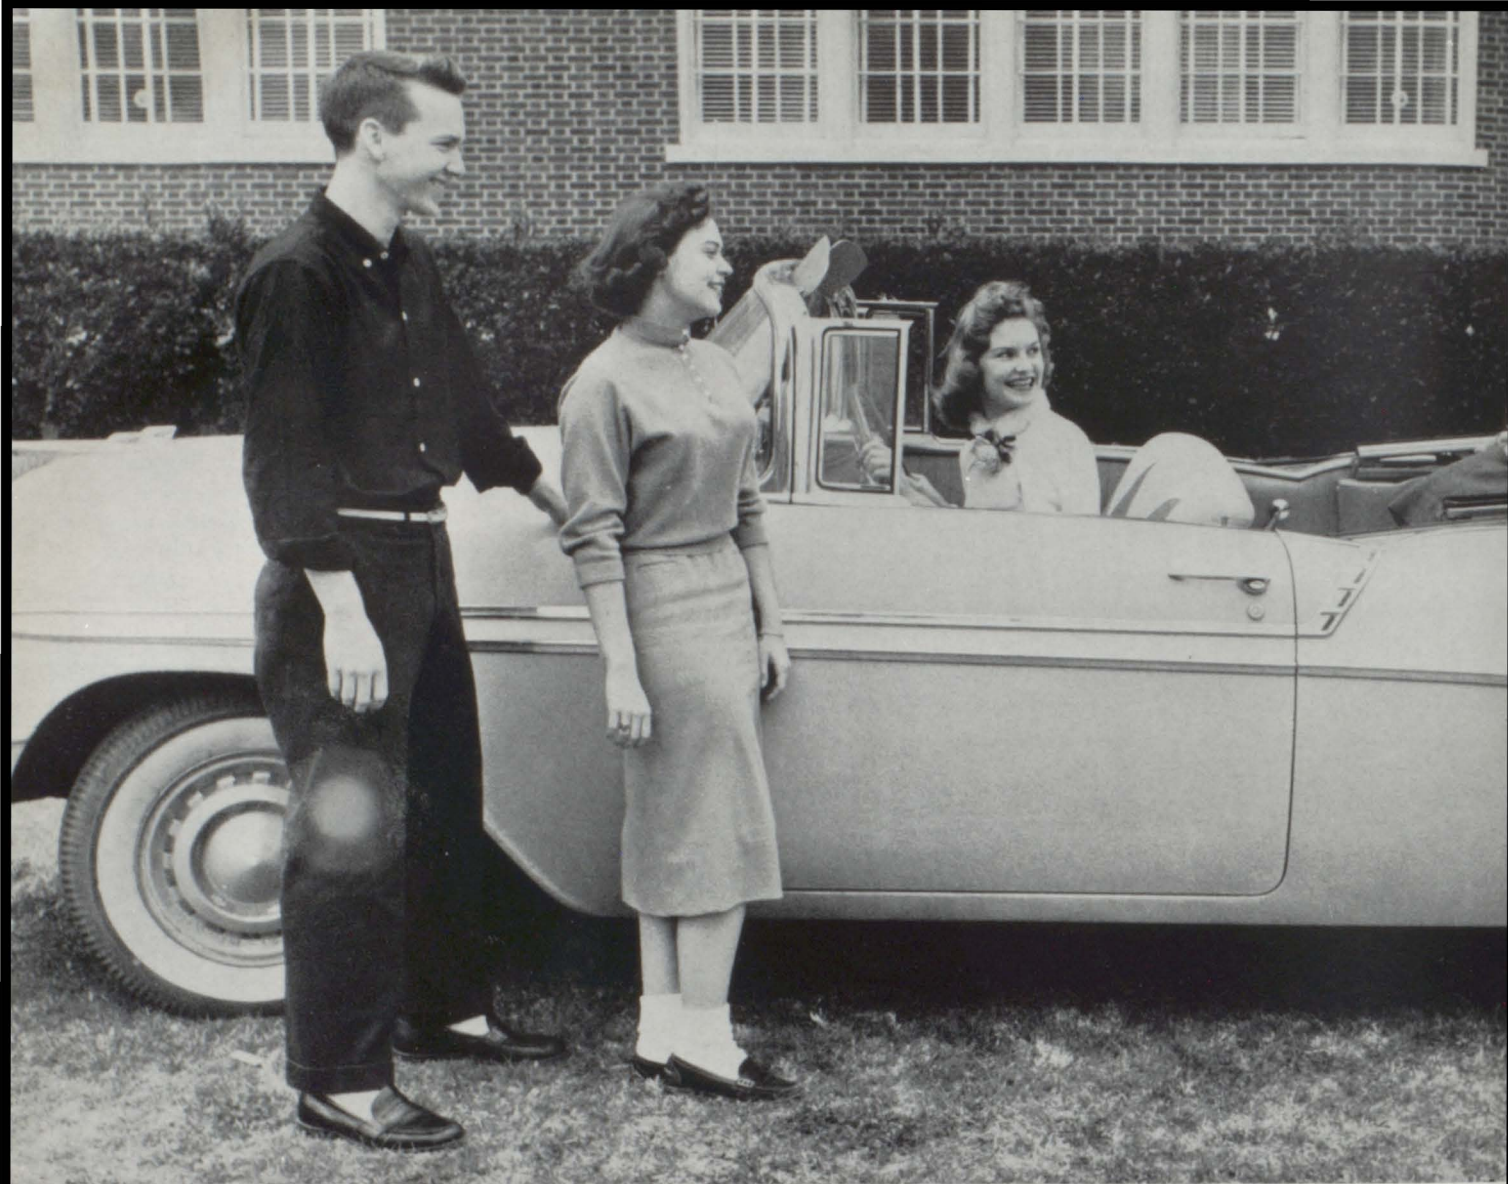

The cafeteria provides a well-balanced meal for students. These girls are enjoying a good, hot lunch.
